Mark R. Walter
Owner & Chairman

Mark Walter is the chairman and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers and an investor, conservationist and social justice advocate. He also leads the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation.

Walter and his wife, Kimbra, invest the vast majority of their wealth in philanthropic causes, primarily those focused on social justice, closing the opportunity gap for low-income youth, saving endangered species and preserving wild places.

Their sponsored education programs include Chicago Beyond, OneGoal and the Academy Group.

The Walters also own White Oak Conservation, a 17,000-acre animal refuge in Florida, and wildlife preserves in Africa where they are funding global efforts to protect endangered species from poachers and habitat loss.

Walter is a trustee of the Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation, Creighton University, Northwestern University and the Field Museum of Natural History.

He leads businesses in areas that include sports, media and entertainment, financial services, insurance, renewable energy and real estate.

Stan Kasten
President & CEO

For four decades, Stan Kasten has been a highly respected sports figure and developed a reputation for creating winning franchises, relying on three pillars – scouting and player development, enhancing the fan experience and community outreach – to establish franchises built for long-term success on and off the field.

That track record has continued during his tenure with the Dodgers, where the club has had an unprecedented run of success. With the 2024 World Series title, Los Angeles has now won two of the past five World Series, four National League pennants in the past eight years and 11 NL West titles in the past 12 seasons. With three World Series titles and more victories, postseason appearances and division titles than any other in the majors in the past 50 years, no team executive can lay claim to as much success in baseball as Kasten.

Since Kasten became the Dodgers' President and CEO in 2012, the team has topped the Majors in attendance each full season under his leadership while continuously making improvements to Dodger Stadium to keep the league's third-oldest stadium among the best facilities in baseball. The Dodgers were also named ESPN's 2020 Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year for the work and community impact of the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation. These achievements led Major League Baseball to award the Dodgers the 2022 All-Star Game, bringing the league's jewel event back to Los Angeles for the first time since 1980.

Kasten has been a member of numerous MLB, NBA and NHL ownership committees during his professional career and is also a former trustee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. In 1999, Kasten became the first sports figure to hold the title of president of three different teams in three different major sports simultaneously, doing so with MLB's Atlanta Braves, the NBA's Atlanta Hawks and the NHL's Atlanta Thrashers. Kasten has continued to push the envelope with his leading roles on the Advisory Board of the Professional Women's Hockey League, founded in 2023, and in the transformation of the Billie Jean King Cup women's tennis team competition.

In 1979, at age 27, Kasten launched his career in sports by becoming the youngest general manager in NBA history with the Hawks, a position he held until 1990. Kasten became the Hawks' president in 1986. During his lengthy tenure in the Hawks' front office, Kasten built the Hawks into a perennial contender, including four consecutive 50-win seasons from 1986-89 and a stretch of seven consecutive playoff appearances in the 1990s, and became the first – and only – NBA executive to win back-to-back Executive of the Year awards in 1986-87.

Kasten also became president of the Braves in 1986. From 1987-2003, the Braves won more games than any other team in MLB and won 14 consecutive division titles (1991-2005), five National League pennants and the 1995 World Series.

In 1999, when the NHL awarded Atlanta an expansion team, Kasten added the title of president of the Thrashers, as well as chairman of the newly constructed Philips Arena (now State Farm Arena). Kasten held all three positions until 2003, when he stepped down.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Kasten was president of the Washington Nationals from 2006-10, where he worked to re-energize a dormant baseball fan base and simultaneously established a crown jewel franchise in Washington, D.C.

Kasten, the Los Angeles Sports Council's 2013 Executive of the Year, is former Director of the Sports Lawyer Association and serves on the LA84 Foundation Board of Directors, the Rose Bowl Institute Advisory Board as well as the Board of the US Japan Foundation.

A native of Lakewood, N.J., Kasten is a graduate of New York University and Columbia University Law.

Andrew Friedman
President, Baseball Operations

As the Dodgers' President of Baseball Operations, Andrew Friedman has instilled a winning culture that has resulted in a playoff berth in each of his 10 seasons (including six straight NL West titles from 2015-2020 and three more consecutively from 2022-24), four National League pennants and two World Championships (2020, 2024). Under Friedman's leadership since 2015, the Dodgers lead MLB with a .618 winning percentage (933-576), including a franchise record 111 wins in 2022 as well as a club-best .717 winning percentage during the shortened 2020 season (43-17).

Entering his 11th season with the club after being named to the post on October 14, 2014, Friedman has overseen the development of one of baseball's top-ranked farm systems, positioning the organization for the long-term success, and also reorganized and built out the team's front office. Friedman was named Major League Baseball's 2020 Executive of the Year and the Dodgers have twice (2017, '20) been recognized by Baseball America as its Organization of the Year, honoring the team for its success from top to bottom.

Friedman previously served as Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations of the Tampa Bay Rays where, despite overseeing one of the league's lowest payrolls, he led the Rays to four postseason appearances, including two division titles (2008, 2010), in nine seasons from 2006-14. During Friedman's time in Tampa Bay, the Rays posted the franchise's first winning season and won the American League pennant in 2008, when he was named Sporting News' Executive of the Year. After finishing below .500 in each of their first 10 years of existence, the Rays finished above the .500 mark in six consecutive seasons under Friedman from 2008-13. Friedman joined the Rays in 2004 and spent two years serving as director of baseball development.

Friedman received a baseball scholarship to Tulane University, where he played outfield for the Green Wave and graduated with a bachelor of science in management with a concentration in finance.

Friedman and his wife, Robin, have two sons, Ethan and Zachary, and a daughter, Sadie.

Bob Wolfe
Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer

Long-time baseball executive Bob Wolfe enters his 14th season with the Dodgers and seventh as the club's Chief Operating Officer after joining the club as executive vice president in 2012. In his role, Wolfe is responsible for carrying out the club's day-to-day business operations and advising and executing on organization-wide operating strategies. He also serves as the team's liaison to MLB on a variety of matters and is a board member of the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation.

In Los Angeles, Wolfe rejoined Dodger President and CEO Stan Kasten, with whom he teamed with at the Atlanta Braves and Washington Nationals, where he served as executive vice president from 2006-11. Prior to that, he worked in various capacities with the Braves and NBA's Atlanta Hawks for more than 20 years, including serving as Braves' senior vice president of administration from 1992-2003. After working in the Braves' accounting department from 1980-84, Wolfe accepted a position as Hawks business manager in 1985 and was promoted to the role of vice president in 1988.

Wolfe and his wife, Kelly Koelker, live in Pasadena.

Brandon Gomes

Executive Vice President & General Manager

Brandon Gomes enters his ninth season with the Dodger organization and fourth as Executive Vice President and General Manager, after being appointed to the post on Jan. 18, 2022. Gomes, 40, became the 12th General Manager in Los Angeles Dodgers history. He originally joined the Dodgers prior to the 2017 season as the organization's Pitching Performance Coordinator before serving as the club's Director of Player Development in 2018 and its Vice President and Assistant General Manager from 2019-21.

In his first season as the GM, the club won a franchise record 111 games and then followed up their record setting campaign in 2022 with 100 wins in 2023, his second year in the role. In his three seasons as General Manager, the Dodgers are 309-177 (.636) with three NL West titles and the 2024 World Championship.

Gomes focuses on the Major League club and works closely with President of Baseball Operations, Andrew Friedman, as he had previously since being named Director, Player Development in December 2017.

Gomes enjoyed a five-year Major League career, all spent with the Tampa Bay Rays (2011-15), going 11-12 while posting one save and a 4.20 ERA in 173 games, all out of the bullpen. He was originally selected by the Padres in the 17th round of the 2007 First-Year Player draft out of Tulane University, where he double majored in finance and legal studies.

A native of Fall River, Massachusetts, Gomes was a two-time All-State selection, the 2002 Massachusetts Gatorade High School Player of the Year and a member of the National Honor Society at Durfee High School.

He and his wife, Blair, live in Los Angeles with their two children.

Lon Rosen

Executive Vice President & Chief Marketing Officer

Entering his 14th season with the Dodgers, Lon Rosen has overseen the revitalization of the Dodger brand through landmark partnerships, global fan development and an aggressive digital growth strategy. One of the foremost executives in the sports and entertainment industry, Rosen has directed the Dodger organization's revenue generating departments as their executive vice president and chief marketing officer since 2012 and continues to break barriers in the organization's business ambitions.

Leading a historic brand in a tradition-bound sport, Rosen has constantly driven innovation in the club's marketing and content creation, seeking to connect with a new generation of fans and further develop a passionate worldwide following for the Dodgers and their players. These efforts have generated league-leading attendance at Dodger Stadium each year since 2013, ratings increases in all forms of media and exponential growth of the team's digital footprint, providing a role model for franchises across the spectrum of sports.

With more than 25 years of experience in the field, Rosen was instrumental in assisting Magic Johnson and the club's owners in their acquisition of the Dodgers. Rosen previously served in the same role for the Dodgers for two years starting in 2004 before rejoining Magic Johnson Enterprises. Rosen focused his efforts for Magic Johnson on business development, television productions, sports consulting and new media ventures, in addition to his representations of broadcasters, coaches, hosts and other entertainment personalities.

Upon graduation from college, Rosen headed to the Forum, where he began his sports career with the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers and the NHL's Los Angeles Kings. He worked his way from an internship to the position of director of promotions for the Lakers, Kings and the Los Angeles Forum's Special Events, where he served seven years (1980-87). From there, he started his own sports marketing company, First Team Marketing, with Magic as his first client.

Rosen, a University of Southern California graduate, resides in Los Angeles with his wife, Laurie. They have two sons.

Janet Marie Smith

Executive Vice President, Planning and Development

During her 12 years with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Janet Marie Smith has overseen the improvement/expansion projects at Dodger Stadium, Camelback Ranch, the club's spring training home and Campo Las Palmas, the club's home in the Dominican Republic. From modernizing the stadium to incorporating the club's rich history into the ballpark experience, Smith's fan-friendly touches have helped keep Dodger Stadium - the third-oldest ballpark in major league baseball - one of the premier venues in all of sports. The 2.5-acre Centerfield Plaza, serving as Dodger Stadium's new "front door," was an immediate hit with fans. Completed in 2020, this project also included renovations to the right and left field pavilions and a vertical circulation path around the building made up of new escalators, elevators, and bridges. This new space and a renovation of the Dodger clubhouse were completed for the 2025 season. Smith initially joined the club as a Senior Vice President in 2012 and was promoted to her current role as Executive Vice President of Planning and Development in 2020.

In 2023, Smith and Fran Weld, formed Baltimore based Canopy Team, a woman-led company working on the design and development of sports projects and their surrounding developments. Dedicated to urban revitalization and community enrichment, Canopy specializes in projects which seamlessly blend sports, design, and urban planning as well as intimate scales within museums, retail, and public parks. Smith's work with Canopy includes projects with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Pimlico Race Course, Polar Park, and Attain Sports & Entertainment.

Smith is well known in baseball for her work on Oriole Park at Camden Yards, which set the standard for a new wave of ballparks after its opening in 1992. She was with the Baltimore Orioles from 1989-94 as Vice President of Planning and Development during the design and construction of the park. She later re-joined the club from 2009-12 to direct renovations and expansion of the Orioles' spring training facility in Sarasota, FL, and upgrades to Camden Yards.

From 2002-2009, Smith served as Senior Vice President of Planning and Development for the Boston Red Sox, overseeing the preservation and expansion of Fenway Park. Smith was President of Turner Sports and Entertainment Development and Vice President of Planning and Development for the Atlanta Braves from 1994-2000, when she helped transform the 1996 Olympic Stadium into Turner Field and she oversaw the development of the Philips Arena (now State Farm Arena), home to the NBA's Atlanta Hawks.

Outside of baseball, Smith has worked on development projects including Battery Park City in New York, Baltimore's waterfront redevelopments, and renovation plans for the Rose Bowl stadium in Pasadena. In 2017, she was the Edward P. Bass Visiting Professor at Yale University.

Nichol Whiteman

Chief Executive Officer, Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation

As the leader of the award-winning Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation (LADF), Nichol Whiteman serves as the Chief Executive Officer where she guides LADF in tackling the most pressing problems facing Los Angeles. With a mission to improve education, health care, homelessness, and social justice for communities across Los Angeles and beyond, Nichol sees herself in the population she serves and works to narrow access gaps. Tasked with relaunching LADF in 2013 with just a $600,000 budget, a new name, and logo, Whiteman's leadership has resulted in $204 million raised in the last 11 years alone– including a $100 million pledge in 2024 by our Chairman Mark Walter and Dodgers Ownership. Creating lasting impact for Los Angeles, LADF has invested $60 million in community programs impacting over 10 million children, including $6 million in 2022 All-Star Game Legacy Projects. Under her leadership, Whiteman also led LADF in rebranding its signature initiative now known as Dodgers Dreamteam, a program that soared from 2,700 participants in 2014 to 11,000 as of 2023. Prior to joining LADF, the Spelman alumna served as the Vice President, Western Region Officer for the Jackie Robinson Foundation and continues to nurture a relationship between the two iconic brands.

A product of Whiteman's vision, the Dodgers Foundation is the proud owner of an ESPY–having been named the 2020 ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year. She led LADF in receiving the 2020 Beyond Sport Award for Reducing Racial Inequalities and has been featured in Forbes Magazine, the New York Times, Sports Illustrated, and the L.A. Times to name a few. An unwavering advocate for sharing best practices through mentorship, Whiteman guides students and young professionals as she fights for the opportunities that all communities deserve. She resides in Los Angeles with her two sons, Timothy Jr. and Nicholas.

Erik Braverman

Senior Vice President, Marketing, Community Relations & Broadcasting

Erik Braverman is in his 16th year with the Dodgers and has had a major impact on the growth of the Dodger brand as it continues to expand beyond the world of baseball. In his role as Senior Vice President, Marketing, Community Relations & Broadcasting, Braverman manages the Dodgers' local and national broadcast relationships and directs the club's marketing and community relations initiatives, helping drive ticket sales and place the club in a position to lead the Majors in attendance each of the last eight years. He also oversees the club's internal productions, creative efforts and the Dodgers' social media, which has set the standard for fan engagement and grown to become one of the most followed teams in baseball across all platforms. Braverman, an openly gay executive, oversees the Dodgers' PRIDE Business Resource Group and launched the club's first Pride Night in 2013, which has helped foster the team's strong year-round relationship with the LGBTQ community and grown into the most well-attended annual event of its kind in all of sports.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Braverman served as Vice President of Programming and Operations for ABC Radio stations, KABC, ESPN Radio and Radio Disney from 1996-2008. He was at the programming helm of the Disney-owned Los Angeles flagship when ESPN Radio was introduced to Los Angeles in 2000.

Braverman was the Director of Talk and Sports Programming at Westwood One Radio from 1994-1996 where he oversaw a number of nationally syndicated shows. He moved to Los Angeles in 1989 where he worked as Executive Producer at KFI & KOST Radio.

A native of Houston, Texas, Braverman resides in West Hollywood with his husband, Jonathan Cottrell.

Josh Byrnes

Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations

Josh Byrnes enters his 11th season as the Dodgers' Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations, where he supervises the club's scouting and player development. Since his first season in 2015, the Dodgers have posted the best record in baseball, winning nine division titles, four National League pennants and two World Championships (2020, 2024).

He previously served as executive vice president/general manager for two of the Dodgers' NL West rivals, the Diamondbacks (Oct. 2005-July 2010) and Padres (Oct. 2011-June 2014). Byrnes began his baseball front office career in 1994 with the Indians, working as an advance scout in 1995 and 1996 before being promoted to director of scouting in June 1998. In Fall 1999, Byrnes became assistant general manager of the Rockies and moved to the Red Sox in the same role for the 2003-05 seasons, helping Boston to the 2004 World Series title.

Originally from Washington, D.C., Byrnes attended Haverford (PA) College, where he established school career records in home runs and RBI. He has two daughters, Avery and Darby.

Royce Cohen
Senior Vice President, Business Strategy

Royce Cohen is the Senior Vice President of Business Strategy for the Los Angeles Dodgers. Currently in his 16th season in the baseball industry, he built and manages the Dodger's Business Strategy and Analytics department. Additionally, he manages strategic planning for various revenue streams, directs the building of internal data systems and processes, drives the organization's marketing priorities, and negotiates contracts with several club partners.

Cohen led the creation of and oversees Dodgers 365, which manages all the Dodgers' non-baseball revenue streams, including stadium events and initiatives outside of Dodger Stadium.

Alongside Billie Jean King, Ilana Kloss, and Stan Kasten, he is a member of the Advisory Board for the Professional Women's Hockey League and was instrumental in the formation of the league, including in the acquisition of assets of the Premier Hockey Federation and the negotiation of a collective bargaining agreement with the Professional Women's Hockey Players' Association, and is also integral in the day-to-day operations of the six-team league that plays in Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, Minnesota, New York, and Boston.

Cohen also works alongside Elysian Park Ventures, the Dodgers' venture capital arm that has invested in over 70 companies. Through EPV, he led the creation of Demand Analytics, a SaaS platform that integrates and automates dynamic pricing, sales forecasting, and market mix modeling for tickets to live events.

A native of Bensalem, Pennsylvania, Cohen graduated summa cum laude from The Wharton School in 2012 and was named one of Sports Business Journal's 2023 Forty Under 40 honorees.

Joe Crowley
Senior Vice President, Stadium Operations

Joe Crowley enters his seventh season as the Dodgers' Senior Vice President of Stadium Operations after joining the club in 2018.

Previously, Crowley worked at the United States Tennis Association for 10 years as the organization's Senior Director of Stadium Operations, where he oversaw operations at the Billie Jean King National Tennis Center in Flushing, NY before helping with the planning, opening and operations at the USTA's National Campus in Orlando, FL.

Prior to his time at the USTA, Crowley served as Senior Director of Stadium Operations for 10 years at what is now Hard Rock Stadium in Miami, heading operations for the multi-sport facility which hosted the Marlins, Dolphins, University of Miami football and special events. He also worked for 10 years in operations for UPS in his native Massachusetts.

A University of Massachusetts graduate, Crowley and his wife Kelly reside in Pasadena, and have a son, Anthony.

Ralph Esquibel
Senior Vice President, Information Technology

Ralph Esquibel is in his 17th season with the Dodgers as an IT executive and fourth as the club's Senior Vice President, Information Technology. In this role, Esquibel oversees the organization's efforts in innovation, technology infrastructure, cybersecurity, compliance, application development, end-user support services and delivering overall organizational technology solutions that align with the Dodgers' mission and business goals.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Esquibel held various technology positions within IBM, Toyota Motor Sales, American Honda Motors and Pioneer Electronics.

Esquibel attended California State University, Los Angeles and served in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves. He and his wife, Nancy, have a daughter, Alyssa and a son, Roman.

Eric Hernandez
Senior Vice President, Finance

Eric Hernandez is in his 15th season with the Dodgers and fourth as Senior Vice President, Finance. Since joining the organization in 2010, Hernandez has held several roles in the finance department, including controller and Vice President, Finance. In his current role, he oversees accounting, finance, payroll, purchasing and financial planning and analysis for the club. Since joining the Dodgers, Hernandez worked on the ownership transition in 2012 as well as having instrumental roles in the financial overview of construction projects at Dodger Stadium and Campo Las Palmas. He currently serves as the Executive Sponsor for the Dodgers' SOMOS business resource group.

Prior to working for the club, Hernandez held various jobs in public accounting at White, Nelson and Co., and private industry at Dexter Corporation, Life Technologies, Invitrogen and eBioscience.

Hernandez graduated from Cal State Fullerton with a degree in Business Administration, Accounting and also passed the CPA exam in the state of California. A Southern California native, he and his wife, Remy, live in Rossmoor with their two daughters, Brooklyn and Noelani. He volunteers his time with the VFW Post 3670 Youth Group and coaching his daughter's softball and basketball teams.

Dan Martens
Senior Vice President, General Counsel

Dan Martens joined the Dodgers in February 2017. He transitioned to Vice President and Deputy General Counsel in 2022, and then to Senior Vice President and General Counsel on January 1, 2023. As General Counsel, Martens oversees all aspects of the organization's legal affairs.

Before joining the Dodgers, Martens worked at the law firm of Latham & Watkins for 10 years, and then served as a founding partner of Dal Soglio & Martens for 15 years. While in private practice, Dan represented corporate clients in a wide variety of complex matters. Some of his more notable matters included the toxic tort cases made famous by the motion picture Erin Brockovich, and serving as national coordinating counsel for Aerojet Rocketdyne in connection with the company's asbestos litigation. Between 2010 and 2017, Dan served as outside counsel for the Dodgers in many different litigation matters.

A native of central Iowa, Martens received his professional education at the University of Iowa, graduating Phi Beta Kappa with Honors in 1991, and receiving High Honors and Special Distinction with his Juris Doctorate in 1994. He and his wife, Kathy, live in Manhattan Beach, California.

Has won at least 100 games in five of nine campaigns
- Is one of five managers all-time with five 100+ win seasons, joining Bobby Cox (6), Joe McCarthy (6), Connie Mack (5) and Earl Weaver (5) ...is the quickest manager in history to record five 100+ win seasons
- Roberts' 851 wins rank fourth in franchise history, and he, Walter Alston (4) and Tommy Lasorda (2) are the only Dodger managers to win a World Series
- Among current managers, his 56 Postseason victories rank second behind Bruce Bochy (57)...he ranks sixth all-time in MLB history in Postseason victories, trailing Joe Torre (84), Tony La Russa (71), Bobby Cox (67), Dusty Baker (57) and Bochy
- Became the first Major League manager to skipper three straight All-Star teams (2018, 2019, 2021) since Joe Torre guided four straight American League squads from 1999-2002
- Has received Manager of the Year votes in all nine seasons as Dodger manager in the Baseball Writers' Association of America balloting, finishing first (2016), second (2017, 2022), fourth (2019), fifth (2020, 2021, 2023), sixth (2018) and seventh (2024).
- In 2017, led the club to the best record in the Majors for the first time since 1974 with a 104-58 mark and the National League's best record for the first time since 2009
- Managed his club to the best 50-game stretch in franchise history, as the Dodgers won 43 of 50 games from June 7, 2017 until August 5, 2017...it was the best stretch in the Majors since the 1912 New York Giants, who went 43-7 from May 6 until July 3; and according to Elias Sports Bureau, only four teams have put up a stretch of winning 43 of 50 games or better in baseball history: the 2017 Dodgers, the 1912 Giants, the 1906 Cubs and the 1884 St. Louis Maroons
- In his first season as Dodger manager in 2016, he was named NL Manager of the Year on Nov. 15, 2016, receiving 16 of 30 first-place votes, to join Hall of Famer Tommy Lasorda (1983, '88) as the only managers in Dodger history to win the award since its inception in 1983...it was just the sixth time the award went to someone who was in his first full season as a manager...also became the first manager of Asian descent to win the award
- In his first season as the club's manager, he led the Dodgers to an NL West title, becoming just the second rookie manager ever to lead Los Angeles to a division title, joining Tommy Lasorda (1977)
- Honored as the Sporting News' 2016 NL Manager of the Year, becoming just the third Dodger manager to receive the award by the publication, joining Hall of Famers Leo Durocher (1939) and Walter Alston (1955, '59,'63)...won the award again in 2024
- Made his Dodger managerial debut on April 4, 2016 in San Diego with a 15-0 victory over the Padres, the largest margin of victory in a shutout win on Opening Day in MLB history
- Named the 28th manager in Dodger franchise history on Nov. 23, 2015...is the 10th skipper in Los Angeles Dodger history and the fourth to both play and manage for the team, joining Tommy Lasorda, Bill Russell and Glenn Hoffman
- Became the first manager of color in Dodger franchise history
- Following the conclusion of his playing career, spent the 2010 season in San Diego's front office, before becoming the Padres' first base coach from 2011-13... served as San Diego's bench coach for the 2014 and 2015 campaigns...managed the Padres for one game on June 15, 2015, following the departure of Bud Black

Playing Career

- Played in the Majors for 10 seasons, debuting with the Cleveland Indians on Aug. 7, 1999...played for the Indians (1999-2001), Dodgers (2002-04), Red Sox (2004), Padres (2005-06) and Giants (2007-08)
- In 832 career games, batted .266 with 243 stolen bases, including a career high 49 in 2006...also hit a career-best .293 with San Diego in 2006
- Was the Dodgers' starting center fielder from 2002-04, hitting .262 in 302 games and stealing 118 bases in 143 attempts (82.5%)
- Was traded by the Dodgers to the Red Sox at the 2004 trade deadline, and then famously stole second base off the Yankees' Mariano Rivera in the ninth inning of Game 4 of the 2004 ALCS...the steal put him in position to score the tying run later in the frame as Boston became the first team in MLB history to rally from a 3-0 series deficit in the Postseason and win a seven-game series

• His 91 SO were 4th in the AL behind CLE Shane Bieber (122), CWS Lucas Giolito (97) and NYY Gerrit Cole (94)…min. 50 innings pitched, his 14.28 strikeouts per nine innings pitched ratio led the majors and was the second highest in club history behind Brad Boxberger (14.47) in 2014

• According to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 81 strikeouts through his first 50 innings pitched of the season were the 2nd-most by a starting pitcher in major league history behind CLE Shane Bieber (82) in 2020

• Went 2-3 with a 6.28 ERA (28.2-IP, 20-ER) in six starts in the Postseason….in Game 2 of the ALDS vs. NYY, recorded a Rays postseason-record 10 SO…allowed a Giancarlo Stanton solo homer to lead off the 2nd inning and a 3-run homer to Stanton in the 4th…in Games 1 and 5 of the World Series against the Dodgers, pitched to a 8.22 ERA (14 ER/15.1 IP) and yielded 5 HR in those three starts

Went 5-0 with a 3.00 ERA (14 ER/42.0 IP) and 64 SO in his last seven starts beginning on Aug. 19, lowering his season ERA from 7.04 to 4.08…ended the season with seven strikeouts (or more) in eight straight starts, the longest such streak in club history, passing David Price (June 24–July 30, 2012) and Scott

Kazmir (July 24–Aug 25, 2007)…limited batters to a .120 avg. (10-for-83) in at-bats ending with the curveball, 5th in the majors (min. 25 at-bats) and recorded 48 strikeouts on a swing-and-miss against his curveball, most in the majors…totaled 58 strikeouts with the pitch, second in the majors behind HOU Framber Valdéz (60)…got 73 swings-and-misses against his fastball, 7th in the majors and 4th in the AL…. on Aug. 25 vs. BAL, recorded a career-high 13 SO, the most by a Rays pitcher since Blake Snell (13) on April 2, 2019, vs. COL

• Finished his first full season with Tampa Bay 6-1 with a 1.78 ERA (12 ER/60.2 IP) in 12 starts

• Was one of the best pitchers in the majors before suffering a right forearm strain in mid-May…at the time of his stint on the injured list, ranked among AL leaders (min. 40 IP) in ERA (1.86, 1st), WHIP (0.91, 2nd), BB/9 IP ratio (1.68, 3rd), SO/BB ratio (6.11, 3rd) and HR/9 IP ratio (0.56, 7th)

• Named AL Pitcher of the Month for April, though the winners were based on stats covering both March and April…it marked the third straight month a Rays pitcher won it, following Blake Snell in August-September 2018, during his Cy Young Award-winning campaign

• On April 10 at CWS, recorded a career-high 11 SO and became the third pitcher since Baseball Reference weather data is complete (2000) to make a scoreless start with 11 SO (or more) in a first-pitch temperature of 38° or colder

• Pitched for Triple-A Durham on a rehab assignment, combining for 2.1 scoreless over 2 starts

• Reinstated from the 60-day IL on Sep 8, with a 1.46 ERA (12.1-IP, 2-ER) in 4 starts after that…the Rays went 10-2 in games he started

•In his postseason debut in Game 1 of the ALDS at HOU, his only runs allowed in 4.1 IP came on a two-run homer by José Altuve, his last batter faced, to break a scoreless tie…in the decisive Game 5 at HOU, yielded 4 runs on 5 hits in the 1st inning

Went 6-0 with a 1.47 ERA (7 ER/43.0 IP) and 46 strikeouts through his first seven starts, and according to Stats LLC, was the second AL pitcher since ERA became an official stat in 1913 to go 6-0 (or better) with a sub-1.50 ERA and 45 strikeouts (or more) over his first seven starts, joining BOS Roger Clemens in 1991… the six-game winning streak tied four others for the second-longest in club history to start the season, behind Matt Moore (8-0) in 2013…his average fastball velocity was 97.0 mph, according to FanGraphs and his max velocity, according to StatCast, was 100.4 mph in his season debut

• Began the season with Pittsburgh before being acquired by Tampa Bay at the non-waiver trade deadline

• His 34 appearances with the Pirates were all in relief, going 1-2 with a 4.34 ERA (27 ER/56.0 IP), striking out 72 batters against 34 walks

• At the time of the trade, his 72 SO ranked 3rd among NL relievers behind MIL Josh Hader (99) and COL Adam Ottavino (77), and his 19 relief apps of at least two innings pitched were most in the majors

• Made 11 starts with Tampa Bay, went 1-5 with a 4.20 ERA (26 ER/55.2 IP) while holding batters to a .208 average

• On Aug 1 vs. LAA, made his Rays debut, and it was his first start since Sep 13, 2017 at MIL…his only run allowed was a 1st-inning solo homer to Kole Calhoun, his second batter faced

• On Sep 17 at TEX, recorded his first win with the Rays, going 6 IP for the longest scoreless start of his career…did not allow a hit until Isiah Kiner-Falefa singled with 2 outs in the 5th inning… both hits allowed were infield singles

Allowed one run or fewer in five of his 11 starts with the Rays…yielded three hits or fewer in six of his 11 starts and two hits or fewer in five starts…after making his Rays debut on Aug. 1, his .208 opponents avg. ranked 6th in the AL (min. 50 IP)…min. 50 innings pitched, his 2.43 runs per nine innings pitched of support was second lowest in the AL from Aug 1 through the end of the season…excluding openers, was the first pitcher in franchise history to begin his Rays career with four consecutive starts of three hits or fewer…on Aug 7 vs. BAL, recorded a career-high nine strikeouts, becoming the second Rays pitcher with nine strikeouts (or more) in an outing of four innings pitched or fewer, following Scott Kazmir on May 17, 2007 vs. TEX

Year-By-Year

• Spent the majority of the season on the injured list with right shoulder inflammation from March until August and a hamstring strain from early August until September

• In seven games with the Dodgers, went 0-0 with a 2.45 ERA (2 ER/7.1 IP) with seven strikeouts

• Appeared in three World Series games, tossing 2.1 innings and giving up two hits, one earned run, four walks and one strikeout

• Made rehab appearances with Rookie-level ACL Dodgers and Triple-A Oklahoma City, combining to go 1-0 with a 5.59 ERA (6 ER/9.2 IP) in 10 outings and eight strikeouts

2023

• Recorded his best season yet in the Major Leagues, posting a 4-2 record and seven saves with a 1.20 ERA (9 ER/67.1 IP) and a 0.97 WHIP in 68 games

• Boasted career-highs in wins (4), ERA (1.20), games (68), innings (67.1), strikeouts (48), and saves (7)

• His 1.20 ERA was the third lowest in Dodger history with a minimum of 40 innings pitched, behind Hung-Chih Kuo and Eric Gagné

• Picked up his first save of the season on April 23 against the Cubs, firing 2.0 scoreless innings while only allowing three hits

• Did not surrender an earned run in his last 25.0 innings to end the season (July 25-Sept.29)…The longest scoreless streak by a Dodgers reliever since the team moved to Los Angeles in 1958

Produced perfect numbers in the postseason, going 3.0 innings, allowing one hit and one walk, while striking out two…his 2.0 innings in Game 2 of the NLDS matched a season-high set on April 23 against the Cubs…posted a 64.4-percent groundball rate which was fourth-highest in the Majors with a minimum of 40 innings pitched…induced 11 double plays on the year which ranked second behind Clayton Kershaw (16)…held opponents to a .213 average with runners in scoring position…Performed slightly better against lefties, limiting them to a .208 average as opposed to a .229 mark against righties

• Spent majority of the season with the Dodgers, pitching in just four games for Triple-A Oklahoma City on a rehab assignment for right shoulder inflammation

• In his four appearances for Triple-A Oklahoma City, went 1-0 with a 0.00 ERA in 3.2 scoreless innings… gave up only one hit and struck out four batters against a single walk

• Capped off his fourth big league season with a 2-4 record and a 3.26 ERA (18 ER/49.2 IP), striking out 43 batters against 10 walks, posting a 7.79 strikeout-per-nine innings mark across 46 games (one start)

• Recorded first Major League save on June 26 vs. the Atlanta Braves…totaled four in five opportunities on the season

• Competitive against righties averaging .165 and held lefties to a .292…kept batters at an overall .215 average and kept hitters to a .180 average on the road

• Matched his career high of pitching 2.0 innings four times this season (May 7 vs. CHC, May 21 vs. PHI, May 24 vs. WSH, July 10 vs. CHC)

Placed on IL on July 15 due to right shoulder inflammation and sent to Triple-A Oklahoma City Dodgers on August 12 for rehab assignment…activated from IL by Los Angeles Dodgers on September 22…allowed two hits and one run in two postseason games, averaging .286

2021

• Pitched for both the Dodgers and Triple-A Oklahoma City during season, appearing in 51 games between both clubs

• Over 34 games (one start) for the Dodgers, the righty went a perfect 3-0 with a 4.59 ERA (17 ER/33.1 IP) and 1.41 WHIP…fanned 27 battes and walked 13

• Produced a 2-2 record over 17 games with Triple-A Oklahoma City, tossing 16.2 innings and keeping hitters to a .194 average…struck out 20 batters and walked just five and recorded a 10.80 strikeout-per-nine innings mark

• Pitched 2.0 innings four times this season, matching his career high (7/25 vs. COL, 8/11 at PHI, 8/22 vs. NYM, 8/25 at SD)

• Was tough on the road, garnering a 1.42 ERA (3 ER/19.0 IP) with 15 strikeouts while limiting hitters to a .176 average

• Appeared in eight Postseason games, allowing just one earned run over 9.0 innings of work for a 0-1 record…struck out seven batters without issuing a walk

Faced bases loaded situations in six games and did not relinquish a hit…limited hitters to a .189 average across 24 instances with runners in scoring position…was solid from both sides of the plate, limiting lefties to a .286 average and righties to a .244 average…in Postseason play, the righty kept the opposition to a .129 average

2020

• In his first season with Los Angeles, went 1-2 with a 3.09 ERA and 0.90 WHIP in 23 games (two starts)… tied for ninth among NL relievers in WHIP

• Held opponents to a .225/.273/.288 slash line, allowing just three extra-base hits (two doubles, one home run)…limited right-handers to a .164 batting average (9-for-55)

• Tied with Kansas City's Josh Staumont with the Majors' fastest average sinker at 99.3 MPH and threw the second fastest average four-seamer at 98.8 MPH (behind Dustin May, 99.1) among pitchers with a minimum of 250 pitches (Source: Baseball Savant)

Used twice as an opener, allowing one run in 2.0 innings in that role in starts vs. Houston (Sept. 13) and at San Diego (Sept. 16)…tossed scoreless relief in eight of his nine Postseason appearances, posting a 3.52 ERA (3 ER/7.2 IP) with one save, a 0.91 WHIP and a .207 opponents' batting average…did not allow a run in his three World Series appearances (2.0 IP) to help lead the Dodgers to the title

2019

• Saw his first Major League action, posting a 1-1 record with a 4.66 ERA (5 ER/9.2 IP) in 10 relief appearances with the Twins

• Entered the season ranked third among Minnesota prospects according to Baseball America

• Had his contract selected on September 1 and made his big league debut the same day at Detroit… recorded first career strikeout, fanning Dawel Lugo, his first batter in the ninth inning… at 21.006-years-old, became 11th youngest Twins pitcher to ever make his debut, youngest since Rich Garces at 19.123-years-old in 1990

• Earned first career win September 14 at Cleveland (Game 2), pitching 2.0 scoreless innings with no hits, no walks and three strikeouts in a Twins 9-5 victory

• Combined to go 7-0, 1.92 ERA (13 ER/61.0 IP) with 23 walks, 61 strikeouts, a .179 opponents' batting average and one save in 18 games (11 starts) between Triple-A Rochester, Double-A Pensacola and the GCL Twins on the season.

• Named Twins Minor League Pitcher of the Week May 5, posting a 0.52 ERA (1 ER/17.1 IP), with 21 strikeouts and a .121 opponent batting average in two starts.

Appeared solely out of the Blue Wahoos and Red Wings bullpens following his final start on August 1, posting a 2.89 ERA (10.1 IP, 3 ER) with a .152 opponents batting average in seven combined appearances… named a Mid-Season All-Star for Double-A Pensacola after going 5-0, 1.89 ERA (10 ER/47.2 IP), 46 strikeouts to just 19 walks and a .188 opponent batting average…missed nearly 10 weeks with a shoulder impingement from May 25-August 7.

2018

• Combined to go 8-4 with a 2.74 ERA (31 ER/102.0 IP) and 107 strikeouts in 19 games with Single-A Cedar Rapids and Advanced-A Fort Myers

• Named Midwest League Mid-Season All-Star after going 2-2, 2.48 ERA (36.1 IP/10 ER) with six walks and 42 strikeouts in seven starts before the All-Star break

Spent two stints on the 7-day Injured List from May 8-14 with back spasms and May 30-June 6 with a right hand contusion

2017

• Ranked the fifth-best prospect in the Twins system by Baseball America

Returned from elbow surgery on August 26 and finished the season with a 4-1 record with a 2.70 ERA (12 ER/40.0 IP) and 45 strikeouts in 10 games (seven starts) with the GCL Twins and Rookie level Elizabethton

Career Highlights

* The unanimous 2024 National League Most Valuable Player finished his first season in Dodger Blue with a World Series Championship and became the first player in Major League Baseball history to hit 50 home runs and steal 50 bases in the same season

* The four-time All-Star has hit .282/.371/.575 (.946 OPS) with 225 homers and 567 RBI during his MLB career while posting a 38-19 record with a 3.01 ERA and 608 strikeouts in 481 2/3 innings across 86 career starts...did not pitch in 2024

* Created the 50/50 club on Sept. 19 in Miami after slugging three home runs and 10 RBI in a 6-for-6 game...cemented himself as the fastest player in MLB history to achieve the 40/40 mark on August 23 with his first career walk-off grand slam...was the third Dodger in franchise history to join the 30/30 club on July 30, joining Raul Mondesi (1997, 1999) and Matt Kemp (2011)

* Became the 13th Dodger to be named National League MVP and first player to win the award unanimously three times (2021, 2023)...was the first Dodger designated hitter and ninth offensive player to win the award, becoming just the second player in Major League Baseball history to win the award in both leagues (Frank Robinson, Cincinnati Reds 1961, Baltimore Orioles 1966) and joined Miguel Cabrera (2012-13) as the only two players to win it in back-to-back campaigns

* Is the 28th player in MLB history to win the Most Valuable Player award multiple times and the 16th player in American League history with multiple MVP awards...in 2023, clubbed 44 homers and drove in 95 runs while hitting .304/.412/.654 and posting a 10-5 record in 23 starts on the mound with a 3.14 ERA and 167 strikeouts

* The two-way player won his first career AL MVP award in 2021 after slashing .257/.372/.592 with 46 homers, 26 doubles, eight triples, 100 RBI, 103 runs and 26 stolen bases in 155 games and going 9-2 with a 3.18 ERA and 156 strikeouts in 130.1 innings (23 starts) on the mound...became the first Japanese-born player to win the award since Ichiro Suzuki in 2001

* His 15 wins in 2022 were the most by an Angels pitcher since Garrett Richards in 2015 (15 W) while his 219 strikeouts were the most since Jered Weaver in 2010 (233 K)

* Named the 2023 World Baseball Classic MVP after leading Team Japan to the title, batting .435 with a 1.345 OPS while going 2-0 on the mound with a 1.86 ERA, striking out Mike Trout of Team USA for the series-clinching out

* In 2021, became the fourth player all-time and first American Leaguer to tally 45 HR, 100 RBI, 100 R and 25 stolen bases in a single season: Barry Bonds in 1993, Larry Walker in 1997, Chipper Jones in 1999

* Won the American League Rookie of the Year in 2018 as he finished his inaugural campaign with a .285 batting average, .361 OBP, .564 slugging percentage, .925 OPS, 22 homers and 61 RBI alongside a 4-2 record with a 3.31 ERA in 11 starts

* Made his Major League debut in 2018 with the Los Angeles Angels, starting as the designated hitter against the Oakland Athletics on March 29, singling in the game

2024

• Began the season with Miami before being traded to San Diego on July 30

• Named to his first All-Star team with Miami after going 6-5 with a 1.18 ERA (6 ER/45.2 IP) and 18 saves with 53 strikeouts

• In 28 games with San Diego, he tossed a 3-1 record with a 2.73 ERA (8 ER/26.1 IP) with four saves and 31 strikeouts against nine walks

• Had his best month in May with Miami, going 3-0 in 10 outings in 10.1 scoreless innings with only four hits

• Appeared in five Postseason games (one NLWC, four NLDS vs. LAD), firing 4.1 scoreless innings with two hits and two walks while striking out seven

2023

• Finished a breakout season in his second year with the Marlins organization, going 9-5 with a 2.31 ERA (20 ER/78.0 IP) and setting career highs with his 74 appearances, innings pitched, 104 strikeouts and a 0.99 WHIP...his 104 strikeouts were first among NL relievers

• Became the first left-handed relief pitcher in Marlin's history to record 100 strikeouts in a season... the only other reliever to record at least 100 strikeouts in a season with the Marlins was RHP Kyle Barraclough, who struck out 113 batters in 2016

• Named NL Reliever of the Month for the month of Sept., going 3-1 with a 1.65 ERA (3 ER/16.1 IP) and held batters to a .167 AVG (10-for-60) during the month...his 20 strikeouts in September ranked second among NL relievers, trailing only CHC's Drew Smyly (22)

• Recorded 60 scoreless outings, ranking first in Marlins bullpen, third among NL relievers and tied for

seventh in MLB

• Went 6-5 at home with a 2.85 ERA (13 ER/41.0IP) in 40 games and a 3-0 record with a 1.70 ERA (7 ER/37.0 IP) in 34 away games

• Made his first Postseason appearance in the Wild Card series against PHI, tossing 1.0 hitless inning with one strikeout

2022

• Acquired by Miami in a trade on April 3

• Went 4-5 with a 4.31 ERA (30 ER/62.2 IP) in 67 relief appearances with 20 saves…his 20 saves were a career-high and team-leading for the season

• His 90 strikeouts were a career-high and a team high…his 12.93 K/9 innings led the Marlins bullpen among qualifiers, and is the second-best mark by a Marlins reliever (min. 60.0 IP) in club history, behind Kyle Barraclough's 14.0 K/9 innings in 2016

• Among National League relievers, ranked first in walks (46), sixth in strikeouts (90) and 15th in saves (20)

2021

• Pitched in a career-high 62 games, going 5-4 with a 5.17 ERA (31 ER/54.0 IP) with 70 strikeouts

• His five wins and 62 appearances were tied for the most among Orioles relievers, while his 16 holds and 11.67 SO/9 led all Orioles relievers

• Appeared in three Postseason starts, going 2-0 with a 4.61 ERA (7 ER/13.2 IP) with 17 strikeouts…earned the win and gave SD the 2-1 series advantage in Game 3 of the NLDS vs. LAD, allowing one run on five hits with six strikeouts across 5.1 innings

2021

• In his first year with San Diego, tossed a 7-6 record with a 4.20 ERA (60 ER/128.2 IP) with 170 strikeouts against 69 walks

• 15 of his 27 starts came vs. the NL West, going 4-0 with a 2.87 ERA (24 ER/75.1 IP), .197 batting average and 1.19 WHIP

• On Aug. 25 vs. LAD, tossed career highs in innings pitched (7.2) and total pitches (122), allowing just one run (Will Smith solo HR in the 8th) in SD's eventual 5-3 defeat in 16 innings

• His 13.0 consecutive hitless innings from Aug. 31 to Sept. 7 set a franchise record for any pitcher (starter or reliever), passing Bill Laxton's 12.1 consecutive hitless frames in July-August 1974…the previous longest streak by a SD starter was 11.0 IP, done 3x (Steve Arlin in July 1972, Bruce Hurst in April 1989 and Chris Young in Sept. 2006)

• Relied on four pitches: 4-Seam (52%), Slider (24%), Curveball (13%) and Change (10%)…opponents hit .153 vs. his slider, .200 vs. his curve, .213 vs. the slider and .429 vs. changeup

2020

• In his final season with Tampa Bay, went 4-2 with a 3.24 ERA (18 ER/50.0 IP) in 11 starts

• Had his best month in Aug., going 3-0 in five starts with a 2.66 ERA (7 ER/23.2 IP) with a 0.97 WHIP while holding batters to a .190 average

• Went 2-2 with a 3.03 ERA (10 ER/29.2 IP) in six Postseason starts, limiting the opposition to a .194 average and allowing two earned runs or less in five of his six outings…allowed just one hit across 5.2 scoreless innings in TB's 3-1 Wild Card victory

• In his two starts vs. LAD in the World Series, he became the third lefty to record nine strikeouts or more twice in a single Fall Classic, joining Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers (3x in '65) and Hal Newhouser of the Detroit Tigers (2x in '45)

2019

• Followed up his Cy Young season with a 6-8 record with a 4.29 ERA (51 ER/107.0 IP) in 23 starts and 147 strikeouts against 40 walks

• Made his first career Opening Day start, tossing 6.0 innings and giving up six hits, five runs, three home runs and two walks while striking out three in the loss

• Was on the injured list from April 14-24 with a fractured left toe and July 22-Sept. 17 with loose bodies in his left elbow

• In Game 4 of the ALCS vs. HOU, entered with one out in the 9th inning and the potential game-tying run at the plate, and got a Yordan Álvarez swinging strikeout and Yuli Gurriel groundout for the save, becoming the second Rays pitcher to record his first career save in the postseason, following David Price in Game 7 of the 2008 ALCS vs. BOS…according to Stats LLC, became the second pitcher to have his first career relief appearance (regular season or postseason) end with a save in the postseason, joining ATL John Smoltz in Game 2 of the 1999 NLCS vs. NYM

2018

• Played his first full season in the Majors, going 21-5 with a 1.89 ERA (38 ER/180.2 IP) in 31 starts and striking out 221 batters against 64 walks with a 0.97 WHIP

• Named the AL Cy Young Award winner by the BBWAA, joining David Price (2012) as the only Rays to win the Cy Young Award…became the youngest pitcher to win a Cy Young Award since LAD Clayton Kershaw (25) in 2013, and the youngest AL pitcher since SEA Félix Hernández (24) in 2010

• Won the 2018 Warren Spahn Award as the majors' top left-handed pitcher, based on wins, ERA and strikeouts…joined David Price (2010) as Rays to earn the honor

• Led the AL outright in both wins (21) and ERA (1.89), both club records

• Won nine consecutive starts from Aug 10-Sep 23, the only pitcher in the majors to do so in 2018…over that stretch, he went 9-0 with a 1.03 ERA (6 ER/52.2 IP) and 74 strikeouts…according to Stats LLC, the only other pitchers in major league history to match or exceed those numbers over a nine-start span are MIN Johan Santana in 2004 and STL Bob Gibson in 1968, both unanimous Cy Young Award winners

• Was named AL Pitcher of the Month for August and September, the youngest pitcher in either league to win back-to-back awards since MIN Johan Santana (July, August, September) in 2004…went 4-0 with a 1.04 ERA (3 ER/26.0 IP) in five starts in August and 5-0 with a 1.26 ERA (5 ER/35.2 IP) in six starts in September

Career Highlights

* 34-year-old infielder/outfielder enters his 12th big league season and his ninth year with the Dodgers after signing a four-year contract in December 2021

* Has a career .250/.329/.423 slashline with 193 doubles, 31 triples, 108 home runs and 431 RBI in 1,065 games with the Mariners (2014-16) and Dodgers (2016-24)

* Spent the beginning of his big league career playing in the infield with 290 games at shortstop, 170 games at second base and 91 games at third base, but transitioned into an outfield role during the 2017 season; splitting time between center field (209 games) left field (362 games), and right field (21 games)...2019 marked his first season seeing time in right field for three games during September...as an infielder he has posted a .962 career fielding percentage, compared to a .987 fielding percentage as an outfielder

* Knocked his 100th career home run via a grand slam June 15, 2023...only player to hit a grand slam for both his first and 100th career home runs

* Named Dodgers' 2023 Roberto Clemente Award nominee...he and his wife started the CT3 Foundation which has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for children with life-altering conditions and those vulnerable in both Los Angeles and Virginia Beach, Chris' hometown

* Blasted his sixth-career Postseason homer and his first Postseason walk-off homer with a two-run shot to win the Wild Card game on October 6, 2021 vs. STL

* Was named to his first All-Star team in 2021 after posting a .277/.382/.452 slashline with 15 doubles, three triples, ten home runs, and 46 RBI before the Midsummer Classic...was also named the 2021 Roy Campanella Award winner for the Dodgers

* Named co-MVP of the 2017 NLCS with Justin Turner, after hitting .316 (6-for-19) with five runs, one double, one triple, two home runs and three RBI paired with a 1.248 OPS in five games

* Made his Major League debut on July 24, 2014 against the Orioles, making the start at shortstop and collecting his first big league hit on the same day, a single in the fifth inning off of Wei-Yin Chen

* Slugged a grand slam home run in the sixth inning off of Silvino Bracho on July 15, 2016 at Arizona for his first career big league homer...also recorded single-game career-highs in RBI (6) and extra-base hits (3), while tying a career-best in runs (3)

* Selected by the Seattle Mariners in the fifth round of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft out of University of Virginia

Personal

Jose Ernesto Hernandez ... Was traded by the Pirates to the Dodgers on June 13, 2024, more than eight years after the Dodgers signed him as an international free agent ... Loved playing basketball as a teenager in Puerto Plata, the hometown of NBA player Al Horford ... One of three Hernandezes to appear at Spring Training for the Dodgers in 2025, along with Kiké and Teoscar ... Would be the second player with his name to suit up for the Dodgers, following infielder-outfielder José Hernández, who hit 13 home runs for the 2004 squad.

2020

• In pandemic-shortened season, led the Twins in RBI (42) in 2020, tied for sixth most in the A.L. and tied for ninth in MLB

• Connected for his fourth career grand slam August 10 at Milwaukee ... recorded 10th career multi-homer game the next night against the Brewers

• Had five outfield assists, which accounted for half of the Twins' total

• Led the team with seven game-winning RBI and tied for team lead with 10 go-ahead RBI

• Batted .353 (18-for-51) with RISP, ninth-highest total in the A.L

2019

• Set career highs that hold today with 32 homers, 109 RBI and 91 runs

• Became seventh player in Twins history (15th instance) with 30-plus homers and 100-plus RBI

• First Twin to have 10 homers before May 1

• In a doubleheader vs. Baltimore on April 20, went 5 for 9 with three homers

• Hit the Twins' 226th home run of season August 9 vs. Cleveland off Shane Bieber, setting club single-season record

• On Sept. 5 in Fenway Park against Boston, threw out Rafael Devers at home to end the game on what would have been a game-tying hit

• Went 4 for 13 with a double and homer (.923 OPS) in the ALDS vs. the Yankees

2018

• Won Calvin R. Griffith Award for Most Valuable Twin and was one of five finalists for the AL All-Star Final Vote (winner Jean Segura)

• Hit .311 (117-for-376) with 24 doubles, two triples, 19 home runs, 60 RBI, 64 runs scored and a .890 OPS prior to the All-Star break

• Hit three home runs in a game for the second time in his career on June 3 vs. Cleveland

• Went 4 for 8 with three doubles in the Twins' 17-inning, 4-3 victory over Boston, with the third double setting up a walk-off RBI single by Max Kepler.

2017

• Homered three times from the No. 9 slot in the batting order on June 13 vs. Seattle, going 4 for 5 with three runs and three RBI in the Twins' 20-7 victory

• Stroked a career-high 33 doubles.

• In the AL Wild Card game vs. the Yankees, he joined Gary Gaetti as the only two players in baseball history to homer in both their first MLB regular season at-bat and first postseason at-bat

2016

• Homered 10 times in 92 games, with a .716 OPS

• Had four hits in a game three times, including a single, two doubles and a home run July 8 at Texas ... scored four runs in that game

2015

• Named Jim Kaat Award winner for Twins Defensive Player of the Year

• Led all rookies in outfield assists (16) ... tied Kirby Puckett's 1984 total for most outfield assists in Twins history for rookies and tied for fifth-most among any Twin in club history

• Led MLB in triples (15), the most for a rookie since 1991, when St. Louis' Ray Lankford had 15

• Finished sixth in American League Rookie of the Year voting

• Recording 36 extra-base hits across 122 games in his first season

• With his home run in his MLB debut on May 6, became the 10th Twin to ever homer in his first career game and sixth to ever homer in his first at-bat

• According to Baseball Almanac, he became the 29th player in MLB history to homer on the first pitch of his career

Personal

Eddie Manuel Rosario, Jr. ... Rosario and his wife, Milany, have three children ... led all Twins minor leaguers in home runs in 2011 (21), despite playing only 67 games in short-season Rookie ball, sharing Appalachian League Player of the Year honors.

DODGER STADIUM

2025 Media Guide
Los Angeles Dodgers

In 2025, Dodger Stadium will mark the 64th season of operation after opening on April 10, 1962. It is the third oldest park in Major League Baseball, behind Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914).

In 2022, Dodger Stadium hosted the Major League Baseball All-Star Game for the second time in its existence, following the 1980 Midsummer Classic. By all accounts, the All-Star Game, the Home Run Derby and the Futures Game were a major success for the Dodgers and the city of Los Angeles as more than 152,000 baseball fans attended the three days of events and flooded Downtown L.A.

The stadium has undergone numerous upgrades and renovations over the years, including the Centerfield Plaza, which debuted to fans in 2021. For the first time, the stadium added a front door, with almost two acres of unique food offerings, entertainment and kids areas, retail locations, sponsor activations, more social- and standing-room areas and greater access for those with special needs. In addition, it is the home for the Jackie Robinson Statue, the Sandy Koufax statue that was dedicated in 2022, "Legends of Dodger Baseball" plaques and exhibits as well as displays that pay tribute to countless moments in Dodger history. During the 2024-25 offseason, the Dodgers performed renovations to the home clubhouse to expand player facilities, adding a second batting cage, additional technology, and kitchen facilities for the players and performance staff The new clubhouse offers players modern and welcoming spaces, with a focus on performance, health, and nutrition

Dodger Stadium's rich history began with club president Walter O'Malley's foresight over six decades ago. During much of the 1950s, he lobbied for a new stadium to be built for his Brooklyn club, but when a deal could not be reached in 1957, the Dodgers made the unprecedented move to California. In September of that year, the city of Los Angeles agreed to give 300 acres of land to the Dodgers in exchange for the deed to Los Angeles' Wrigley Field and their commitment to construct a 50,000-seat stadium. While Dodger Stadium was being built, the Dodgers played at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum from 1958 through 1961, before Opening Day, April 10, 1962, when the Dodgers finally played in their new home before 52,564 fans.

The Dodgers enter their 64th season of play at Dodger Stadium (capacity: 56,000) in 2025 with a 2,919-2,069 (.585) record in 4,998 regular season games. The stadium has hosted 109 Dodger Postseason games with the club holding a 65-44 record (.596), including 27 games (19-10, .655) during 11 World Series (1963, '65, '66, '74, '77, '78, '81, '88, 2017, 2018 and 2024). Since Dodger Stadium's opening in 1962, Los Angeles has the best home winning percentage in the National League and the second best regular season home record in the Majors, behind only the Yankees' .601 (2,892-1,919).

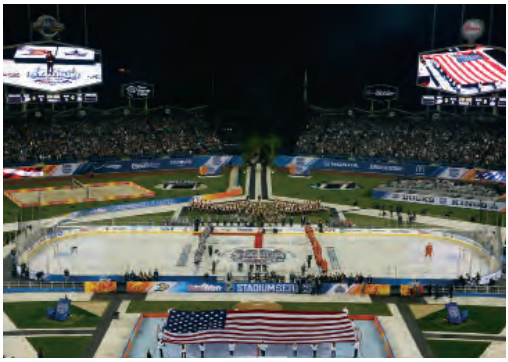
History

- The first game in Dodger Stadium history was held on April 10, 1962. Left-hander Johnny Podres made the start against the Cincinnati Reds. Kay O'Malley, wife of Dodger President Walter O'Malley, threw out the ceremonial first pitch to catcher John Roseboro.
- Hall of Famer Willie Stargell is the only player to twice hit a ball out of Dodger Stadium (Aug. 5, 1969, and May 8, 1973). Mike Piazza is the only Dodger to clear the roof (Sept. 21, 1997).
- Of the seven Dodger World Series championships, the only title clinched on their home field was 1963 when Los Angeles swept the Yankees, capped by a 2-1 victory in Game 4.
- The 1980 All-Star Game at Dodger Stadium was won by the NL, 4-2 and the 2022 Midsummer Classic contest saw the American League best the National League, 3-2.
- The only perfect game in Dodger history was pitched by Sandy Koufax at Dodger Stadium in a 1-0 victory against the Chicago Cubs on Sept. 9, 1965.

International

- Dodger Stadium played host to the 1984 Olympic Baseball tournament, the opening ceremonies of the 1991 United States Olympic Festival and the finals of both the 2009 and 2017 World Baseball Classics.
- On March 26, the Dodgers unveiled their Japanese stone lantern from 1965 at a more prominent location on Top Deck. The lantern was presented to the Dodgers organization by Japanese sports columnist Sotaro Suzuki, who is also a member of the Japanese Baseball Hall of Fame. The eight-foot, 3,921-pound Kasuga-style stone lantern was gifted to the organization and team president Walter O'Malley by Suzuki as a thank you for inviting him and his wife, Toku, as guests to Dodger Stadium's grand opening on April 9, 1962.

Sandy Koufax celebrates recording the final out of the 1963 World Series.



Dodger Stadium played host to the NHL's Stadium Series on January 25, 2014, as the Anaheim Ducks faced the Los Angeles Kings in a regular season game.

Unique Events

• In November 2022, Dodger Stadium was the site for the final three North American shows played by legendary entertainer, Elton John. Nearly 150,000 music fans packed the stadium over the fall weekend.
• Dodger Stadium is part of the fabric of Los Angeles and during the COVID-19 pandemic the Dodgers opened the stadium and its parking lots in 2020 for communal benefit, including serving as a supersite where over a million tests were administered at one of the country's largest vaccination sites. Additionally, the stadium's Top Deck served as one of Los Angeles County's busiest Vote Centers for the 2020 Presidential Election.
• Pope John Paul II celebrated a Mass at Dodger Stadium on Sept. 16, 1987. The event drew a stadium-record crowd of 63,000.
• Entertainers to perform at Dodger Stadium include: AC/DC, Beyoncé, Billy Joel, Bruno Mars, Guns N' Roses, The Rolling Stones, The Beatles, KISS, Madonna, The Bee Gees, Elton John, Simon and Garfunkel, John Legend, Luke Bryan, Michael Jackson, David Bowie, Genesis, Eric Clapton, U2, the Dave Matthews Band, Bruce Springsteen, Paul McCartney and The Three Tenors.
• The Harlem Globetrotters played an exhibition game at Dodger Stadium on Feb. 4, 1964. The basketball court was placed on the infield.
• Dodger Stadium has played host to a rugby match (2015), a soccer game (2013) and the National Hockey League's first regular-season outdoor game in California on Jan. 25, 2014, between the Los Angeles Kings and Anaheim Ducks.

Original Construction

• Elevations at "Chavez Ravine" ranged from 400 feet to 700 feet above sea level. More than eight million cubic yards of earth was moved to reshape the area.
• Dodger Stadium was designed by Emil Praeger and was the first privately financed stadium since Yankee Stadium, built by a brewery in 1923.
• The Dodgers played at the Los Angeles Coliseum from 1958-61, and groundbreaking ceremonies for the original Dodger Stadium construction were held on Sept. 17, 1959.

A birds-eye view of the Dodger Stadium construction and terraced parking at Chavez Ravine.

• There were more than 25,000 separate pieces of precast concrete used to build the original Dodger Stadium.
• The original dugout level seats at Dodger Stadium were inspired by a similar layout of dugout seats at Korakuen Stadium, where the Dodgers played during their 1956 Japan goodwill tour. Club seats have since been replaced by the Dugout Club Seats.
• Dodger Stadium was designed so that each of the nine levels of the park has entries at grade as the hillside rises around the structure. The engineers used the terrain of the site to allow access directly from each level without requiring fans to use stairs or an elevator.
• The original color scheme of Dodger Stadium, which is evident in the seats today, is a result of the study of popular colors in the 1960s, reflective of the California spirit.
• The distinctive inverted precast panels of the Top Deck and the zig-zag roof of the pavilions are unique architectural features.

* The 1980 and 2018 attendance totals both include a one-game playoff and the 1962 total includes two playoff games. Bold indicates all-time Dodger high. The attendance totals do not include playoff series. The 1972 season began late due to a players' strike, as the Dodgers had just 75 home games. The 1981 season was interrupted on June 12 by a players' strike, as the team had just 56 home games. The 1994 season was cut short on Aug. 12 by a players' strike. The 1995 season began late due to the 1994-95 players' strike. The Dodgers' first 33 games in 2021 were played in front of limited capacity crowd due to COVID-19 regulations.

Los Angeles Attendance Highlights

Record At The Turnstile: In 2019, the Dodgers set a single-season franchise attendance record with 3,974,309 (49,066 average) in 81 home dates, which included 28 sellouts. The attendance mark led Major League Baseball, the seventh consecutive year the Dodgers have done so, and represented the 10th largest single-season mark in Major League history (third largest in NL history). It marked the second consecutive year that the Dodgers established a single-season attendance record after drawing 3,857,500 in 82 home dates in 2018 (47,042 average).

MLB Leaders: Since moving to Los Angeles in 1958, the Dodgers have led the National League in attendance 37 times, including posting the highest attendance in the Majors in 33 of those 37 years (see previous page for individual seasons). Los Angeles has led the Majors in attendance for the last nine full seasons since 2013, including 2023.

Sellouts: The Dodgers established a club record with 37 sellouts in 1983.

Largest Single-Game Crowd: The Dodgers drew 57,097 fans on April 13, 2009 for an 11-1 Opening Day victory over the Giants, the largest regular season crowd in Dodger Stadium history and one of three times that the club has drawn more than 56,000 at Chavez Ravine (also: March 31, 2011 vs. SF, Aug. 21, 2012 vs. SF).

Largest Single-Game Postseason Crowd: During the postseason, the largest Dodger Stadium crowd is 56,800 - done three times during the 2008 NLCS vs. Philadelphia - Oct. 12, 13, 15.

Over Three Million: The Dodgers hold the Major League record for drawing more than three million fans on 35 occasions, while also topping the big leagues in number of times topping 2.5 million (50). Los Angeles surpassed 2 million fans for an MLB record 47 consecutive seasons (1973-2019).

Turnstiles: The Dodgers established a then Major League record when they drew 3,608,881 fans in 1982. The NL implemented a new attendance counting system in 1993, and the Rockies recorded the largest single-season total in Major League history with 4,483,350 fans in their first Major League season. Through the 1992 season, attendance figures in the NL were counted by the number of fans in attendance and the AL counted total tickets sold. Both leagues - currently count total tickets sold.

For The Record Book: On May 7, 1959, the Dodgers and Yankees played before an exhibition crowd of 93,103 at the Los Angeles Coliseum in honor of Roy Campanella, the highest single-game attendance mark for a Major League game.

World's Greatest: The Dodgers in 2005 were honored by the Guinness Book of World Records as having the "Highest Cumulative Attendance for a Baseball Franchise" dating back to 1901.

Campo Las Palmas

The Dodgers were the first MLB club to establish a baseball academy in the Dominican Republic when they first opened the doors of Campo Las Palmas in 1987. Former Dodger President Peter O'Malley and former Dodger Scout and Vice President Ralph Avila arranged for the Dodgers to purchase land in San Antonio de Guerra on which Campo Las Palmas was constructed. The Dodgers, under ownership by Mark Walter and Guggenheim Baseball Management, expanded the campus with the purchase of a neighboring parcel and the total complex is now 70 acres.

Campo Las Palmas celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2017 with extensive improvements and an expansion of the state-of-the-art facility. In 1987, the original facility consisted of four structures, which has now grown to 10 buildings of nearly 100,000 total square feet following the 2017 expansion. The newly renovated Campo Las Palmas houses 96 players, 19 coaches and support staff, while training facilities include three and one-half fields, a covered batting cage large enough to accommodate infield practice, a mile running track, conditioning and weight room and training areas within the clubhouse. Designed to expand the campus qualities of the original complex and encourage continuing education during time in camp, new buildings at Campo Las Palmas feature four classrooms, a quiet room and a social area for players. Additional updates include the Jackie Robinson Hall which functions as a movie house that uses English-language films as part of language learning and is a place where players can spend time with their families when they visit Campo Las Palmas. A community field for little league play is near the entrance, and fruit trees and a vegetable garden near the new kitchen mark the team's commitment to nutrition.

Camelback Ranch-Glendale

Camelback Ranch-Glendale (CR-G) is in its 17th season (opened in 2009) as the Spring Training home of the Dodgers and White Sox this year. CR-G is one of the largest stadiums in the Cactus League and features unique grounds that include picturesque walking trails, a five-acre lake and an orange grove – a nod to the Dodgers' previous spring home in Vero Beach, FL, where they trained for 61 years. The CR-G campus has become home for all Dodger minor league operations throughout the year, including the franchise's teams in the Rookie-level Arizona League, Fall Instructional League and Arizona Fall League.

The award-winning stadium offers more than 10,300 fixed seats and grass seating for 3,000-plus fans. An orange grove – a touch of Dodgertown, Southern California and Arizona – is located beyond the left-field wall of replica Dodger Stadium.

The Dodgers set a CR-G total attendance record in 2017, with 165,911 in 17 home dates. The club's record for average attendance was set in 2016, when the club hosted 155,841 fans in 15 home dates (average of 10,389).

Dodgertown In Vero Beach

Dodgertown in Vero Beach was the Spring Training home of the Dodgers for 61 years from 1948-2008 and home to some of the most memorable players and personalities of both Brooklyn and Los Angeles lore. The personalized street signs within the complex honored such Hall of Famers as Jackie Robinson, Sandy Koufax, Roy Campanella, Duke Snider, Pee Wee Reese, Don Drysdale, Tommy Lasorda, Walter Alston, Don Sutton, Vin Scully and Jaime Jarrín.

The Dodgers first set up camp at the invitation of a local businessman, Bud Holman, after the city needed a tenant to occupy a former World War II Naval Air Station. The club brought its minor league operations to Vero Beach in 1948, and in 1952 Dodger President Walter O'Malley and New York-based architect Emil Praeger decided to build an intimate-style stadium with unobstructed views. "Holman Stadium," named by O'Malley after Bud Holman, was officially dedicated on March 11, 1953. The camp became the most unique baseball training facility in the country, a destination for international baseball visitors. The complex also grew into six practice fields, four indoor batting and pitching tunnels, a pool, tennis court and more.

On March 17, 2008, the final Spring Training contest took place at Holman Stadium and at its conclusion, the Dodgers formed a "bat tunnel" for Hall of Famer Tommy Lasorda as he walked off the field for the final time in Vero Beach. In November 2014, Historic Dodgertown - Vero Beach was designated as a "Florida Heritage Landmark" and a Historical Marker was unveiled on the property.

Hitting for the Cycle

Babe Herman set the Dodger career record for hitting for the cycle when he did so twice in 1931. He then tied the Major League record by doing so a third time with the Chicago Cubs, matching Bob Meusel (1921, 1922, 1928) and John Reilly (1883 (2), 1890).

Uniform Numbers In Dodger History

Since 1932, hundreds of players and coaches have put on a Dodger uniform, wearing every single number from 1 to 77 as well as 0, 00, 97 and 99. On April 15, from 2007-19 the Dodgers all wore No. 42 to celebrate the 60th-72nd anniversaries of Jackie Robinson breaking the color barrier. Pitcher Joe Beimel's No. 97 was the highest number ever worn by a player during a regular-season game until Manny Ramirez donned No. 99 in 2008. In 2014, Brian Wilson became the first Dodger to wear 00. Pee Wee Reese's No. 1 was officially retired on July 4, 1984, one of nine numbers that have been retired. Below is a list of the different numbers worn by Dodgers since 1932 and the years in which they were worn.

PEE WEE REESE — IF — 1

Uniform Number Retired July 1, 1984

Harold "Pee Wee Reese" played 16 seasons at shortstop for the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers (1940-42, 1946-58) and was a member of seven Brooklyn pennant-winning teams, including the World Championship club of 1955. Despite missing the 1943-45 seasons for service in the Navy, the 10-time National League All-Star appeared in more games at shortstop (2,014) than any player in franchise history and is also the Dodgers' all-time leader in runs scored (1,338) and walks (1,210). His leadership qualities were recognized by Manager Walter Alston, who appointed "The Little Colonel" as team captain. Reese was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984.

TOMMY LASORDA — MGR — 2

Uniform Number Retired August 15, 1997

Tommy Lasorda had a tough act to follow when he succeeded future Hall of Famer Walter Alston as Dodger manager with four games left in the 1976 season. But like Alston, Lasorda went on to enjoy a lengthy and highly successful tenure at the helm. Piloting the Dodgers until the 1996 campaign, he racked up 1,599 victories to rank 13th on the all-time Major League managerial list, winning two World Series titles (1981 and 1988), four NL pennants and eight division titles. Prior to joining the big league staff as a coach in 1973, he had a successful eight-year stint as a minor league manager, helping the development of several future Dodger stars. The former Brooklyn Dodger pitcher was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

DUKE SNIDER — OF — 4

Uniform Number Retired July 6, 1980

The Duke of Flatbush was among the game's most feared hitters during his 16 seasons with the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers (1947-62), playing on a pair of World Championship teams (1955 and 1959) and in six World Series overall. The eight-time All-Star center fielder ranks as the franchise's career leader in home runs (389) and runs batted in (1,271) and during the 1950s he topped all Major Leaguers with 326 homers and 1,031 RBI. He slugged four home runs in both the 1952 and 1955 World Series, and he holds the Brooklyn Dodger single-season mark of 43 homers, which led the National League in 1956. His 136 RBI in 1955 topped the NL. Snider was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1980.

GIL HODGES — IF — 14

Uniform Number Retired June 4, 2022

Gil Hodges was as solid as they come in his professionalism, integrity, and dependability in leading the Dodger teams of the 1940s and '50s at first base. Hodges led the Dodgers to their first World Championship in 1955 and was the cornerstone to Dodger teams that won seven National League pennants and two World Series over 13 seasons (1943, 1947-61). The eight-time All-Star topped 20 homers in 11 straight years and hit 370 in his brilliant career, the third highest total for a right-handed hitter at his retirement. From 1949-57, Hodges averaged 32 home runs and 108 RBI per season. On Aug. 31, 1950, Hodges became the second modern-era NL player to hit four home runs in one game. He went on to play for the Mets and managed nine seasons in the big leagues with the Washington Senators and the New York Mets, guiding the Miracle Mets to the 1969 World Series title. Fifty years after his untimely passing at age 47 in 1972, Hodges joined his "Boys of Summer" teammates — Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella, Pee Wee Reese and Duke Snider — in the Hall of Fame in 2022.

JIM GILLIAM — IF/OF — 19

Uniform Number Retired October 10, 1978

Following three years for the Baltimore Elite Giants in the Negro Leagues starting at age 17, Jim Gilliam played his entire 14-year Major League career (1953-66) in a Dodger uniform, both in Brooklyn and Los Angeles, contributing to four World Championship clubs (1955, 1959, 1963 and 1965) and seven pennant winners overall. "Junior" appeared in 1,956 games to rank fifth on the franchise's all-time games played list, seeing action at second base, third base and in the outfield. In 1953, he was selected as the National League Rookie of the Year. Following his playing career, the two-time All-Star served as a Dodger coach until his unexpected death at the age of 49 prior to the start of the 1978 World Series, at which time his number was retired and the Dodgers wore a commemorative patch on their sleeve in his honor.

DON SUTTON — RHP — 20

Uniform Number Retired August 14, 1998

The durable right-hander spent 16 of his 23 Major League seasons with the Dodgers and more than made his mark in team history, ranking as the franchise's all-time leader in wins (233), games started (533), innings pitched (3,816.1), strikeouts (2,696) and shutouts (52). A four-time All-Star, he pitched in three World Series (1974, 1977 and 1978) with the Dodgers, led the National League in shutouts (9) in 1972, was the NL ERA leader (2.21) in 1980 and a 21-game winner in 1976. He made his big-league debut with the Dodgers in 1966 and stayed with the team through 1980, before leaving and rejoining the club in 1988. Sutton finished his career with 324 wins and 3,574 strikeouts and was enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998.

WALTER ALSTON — MGR — 24

Uniform Number Retired June 5, 1977

Walter Emmons Alston was a virtual unknown when he took over the helm of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1954, but he became well-known in a hurry. The longtime minor league skipper guided his first Dodger team to 92 wins and followed that by piloting the 1955 Dodgers to 98 victories and their first World Championship in franchise history. He went on to lead the Dodgers to six more National League pennants and three more World Series titles (1959, 1963 and 1965) in a 23-year career in which he tallied 2,040 victories to place sixth on the all-time managerial wins list. His 3,658 total games managed rank eighth all time. Alston, who played in one Major League game, that with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1934, was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1983.

SANDY KOUFAX — LHP — 32

Uniform Number Retired June 4, 1972

Among the most dominating pitchers in baseball history, the left-hander won 165 games and compiled 2,396 strikeouts in 2,324.1 innings with 40 shutouts in his 12-year Dodger career (1955-66). A three-time Cy Young Award winner and the National League MVP in 1963, Koufax was also World Series MVP in both 1963 and 1965, hurling a pair of 10-K shutouts in Games 5 and 7 of the latter. He led the NL in ERA five straight seasons from 1962-66, was the strikeout leader four times and tops in wins on three occasions with totals of 27, 26 and 25. In addition, Koufax pitched an NL-record four no-hitters, including a perfect game in 1965, and set the National League single-season mark with 382 strikeouts in 1965. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1972.

FERNANDO VALENZUELA LHP 34

Uniform Number Retired: August 11, 2023

Fernando Valenzuela is one of the most influential figures in Los Angeles Dodgers history. The left-handed pitching sensation from the small town Etchohuaquila in Navojoa, Mexico, launched "Fernandomania" in 1981 with one of the most dominant starts for a rookie to begin a season in Major League history. Valenzuela re-energized the Dodger fanbase and created a multi-generational, multicultural impact that will live on in Los Angeles for years to come. Valenzuela, at age 20, was the emergency 1981 Opening Day starter and defeated the Houston Astros, 2-0, beginning a run of eight consecutive wins – five by shutout. He is the only pitcher in Major League history to win Rookie of the Year and Cy Young Award honors in his rookie season. Valenzuela also helped lead the Dodgers to a World Series championship in 1981. "El Toro," the master of the screwball, played 17 Major League seasons, including 11 with the Dodgers from 1980-1990 where he was a six-time All-Star, a two-time Silver Slugger Award winner for his prowess with the bat and a Gold Glove Award winner. His 173 victories and 2,074 strikeouts are the most for any Mexican-born Major Leaguer. In 2003, the cultural icon returned to the Dodgers as a Spanish-language broadcaster. His No. 34 was officially retired by the Dodgers on Aug. 11, 2023 – the same day the city of Los Angeles declared "Fernando Valenzuela Day."

ROY CAMPANELLA C 39

Uniform Number Retired June 4, 1972

In 10 seasons with the Brooklyn Dodgers (1948-57), Campy was a force both at the plate and behind the plate. The catcher played on five pennant-winning clubs, including the World Champions of 1955. That season, the eight-time All-Star became a three-time National League Most Valuable Player award winner after collecting 32 home runs and 107 RBI. He also garnered MVP honors in 1951 and 1953, when he led the league with a Brooklyn-record 142 RBI to go with a career-high 41 home runs. A Negro Leaguer beginning in 1937 at age 15, Campanella's career was cut short due to a tragic automobile accident that left him paralyzed. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1969.

JACKIE ROBINSON — OF/IF — 42

Uniform Number Retired June 4, 1972

Jack Roosevelt Robinson made a historic entrance into Major League Baseball in 1947 as the first African-American player in the history of the game. His outstanding debut season netted him the inaugural Rookie of the Year award, which now bears his name, and springboarded him to a stellar 10-season career in which he was part of six Brooklyn Dodger pennant-winners, among them the World Championship club of 1955. In 1949, the six-time all-star won the National League batting title (.342) en route to earning MVP honors. Robinson, a first baseman as a rookie, starred as a second baseman for the next five seasons, before moving on to play third base and the outfield. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962.

DON DRYSDALE — RHP — 53

Uniform Number Retired July 1, 1984

One of the game's fiercest competitors, the hard-throwing right-hander Drysdale pitched 14 seasons (1956-69) for the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers, ranking second on the franchise career list in wins (209), games started (465), innings pitched (3,432.1), shutouts (49) and third in strikeouts (2,486). The NL strikeout leader in 1959 and 1960, Big D earned the leagues' Cy Young Award in 1962, when he won 25 and topped the league in strikeouts for a third time. A member of three World Championship clubs (1959, 1963 and 1965) and two other pennant winners (1956 and 1966), he set a then-Major League record in 1968, tossing 58.2 consecutive scoreless innings, including a record six straight shutouts. Drysdale gained induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984.

International Relations

Throughout their history, in both Brooklyn and Los Angeles, the Dodgers have played a major role in the development of international baseball and forging relationships with countries around the world:

Australia

- The Dodgers played in the historic Opening Series in Sydney in March 2014 against the Diamondbacks in MLB's first regular season games in Australia. The Dodgers, who also played an exhibition game against Team Australia, swept the two-game series, which was held at the historic Sydney Cricket Ground. The series marked the Dodgers' first regular-season games outside of North America.
- In 1986, shortstop Craig Shipley became the first native-born Australian to play in the Majors

Canada

- The Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers had a minor league affiliate in Montreal, Canada from 1939-60. Jackie Robinson made his professional baseball debut and won the International League batting title with the Triple-A Montreal Royals in 1946.

Jackie Robinson as a Montreal Royal in 1946.

China

- In the spring of 2008, a split-squad of Dodgers traveled to Beijing, China to play against the San Diego Padres at Beijing's Wukesong Stadium in an exhibition and the first-ever Major League games played in that country.
- In 1986, Peter O'Malley paid for construction of a baseball stadium in Tianjin. Named Dodger Stadium, it still exists and is home to the Tianjin Lions of the Chinese Professional Baseball League founded in 2002.

Cuba

- The Dodgers held Spring Training in Havana from 1941-42 and again in 1947.
- Clayton Kershaw and Yasiel Puig joined MLB and the Players' Association on a historic goodwill tour to Cuba in December 2015.

Dominican Republic

- The Los Angeles Dodgers' baseball academy in the Dominican Republic, Campo Las Palmas, underwent a major renovation and re-dedication in 2017 as it celebrated its 30th year in Dodger player development, having officially opened on March 27, 1987. It was the first-of-its kind facility and has since been replicated by numerous teams throughout baseball. Campo Las Palmas is located in the town of Guerra, just east of the Dominican Republic's capital city of Santo Domingo (more information on Campo Las Palmas can be found in the Dodger Stadium section).
- Fernando Valenzuela (2011) and Nomar Garciaparra (2015) have been inducted into the Latino Baseball Hall of Fame at Casa de Campo in La Romana, joining Tommy Lasorda who is a founding member and Goodwill Ambassador of the organization. Lasorda has a statue at the Paseo de los Inmortales, dedicated in 2012, and The Hall of Fame annually bestows an award in his name for a non-Latino who makes significant contributions to Latino baseball. Former Dodger President Peter O'Malley is a past recipient
- The Dodgers' history in the Dominican Republic began in 1948 when they held Spring Training in Ciudad Trujillo.

Japan

- The Dodgers have held three postseason tours of Japan by Brooklyn and Los Angeles teams following the 1956, 1966 and 1993 seasons. The Tokyo Giants visited Vero Beach during Spring Training five times (1961, 1967, 1971, 1975 and 1980).
- In 1966, the Dodgers received a two-ton, 10-foot tall, stone lantern gift from Japanese Hall of Famer Sotaro Suzuki as a token of friendship between the Dodgers and Japan and to commemorate the opening of Dodger Stadium in 1962.
- After the 1993 season, the Dodgers played five exhibition games in Asia as part of the Friendship Series tour, three in Taipei, Taiwan and two in the Fukuoka Dome in Fukuoka, Japan.

- In 1995, Hideo Nomo became only the second Japanese born player to appear in the Major Leagues. The Nomo signing and his success spawned Nomo-mania and opened the door for Japanese players in the United States.
- In 2023, the Dodgers signed Shohei Ohtani and Yoshinobu Yamamoto to two of the largest contract in Major League Baseball history. Ohtani signed a 10-year, $700 million dollar contract and Yamamoto signed a 12-year, $325 million.
- In 2025, the Los Angeles signed Roki Sasaki to a minor league contract, becoming the third Japanese pitcher to join the team in the last three season...
- In a highly anticipated homecoming for Ohtani, Sasaki and Yamamoto, the Dodgers open the 2025 MLB season in Tokyo, facing the Chicago Cubs and their Japanese stars Shota Imanaga and Seiya Suzuki. Each team also put exhibition games against Hanshin Tigers and the Yomiuri Giants on the docket.

Korea

- On Sept. 9, 1990, the Dodgers became the first Major League team to have a game broadcast in the Korean language in the United States.
- In 1994, pitcher Chan Ho Park became the first Korean to play in the Major Leagues.
- In 2024, for the second time in franchise history, the Dodgers opened the regular season on another continent, splitting a two-game series against the Padres in Seoul, Korea. That couplet was preceded by exhibition games against the Kiwoom Heroes and Team Korea.

Mexico

- Pitcher Fernando Valenzuela made his Major League debut in 1980. The native of Sonora, Mexico became an international sensation in 1981 and helped the Dodgers win the World Series.
- The Dodgers took a trip to Monterrey, Mexico during Spring Training in 1991 for a two-game exhibition against Industriales de Monterrey and the Milwaukee Brewers
- In 2018, the club played three regular season games against the San Diego Padres in Monterrey from May 4-6 and tossed their very first no-hitter on international soil May 4... The Dodgers also played exhibition games in Mexico City prior to the 1964 season against the Red Devils and in 2003 against the New York Mets.
- Julio Urias won 20 games in 2021, becoming just the 4th Mexican-born pitcher in MLB history to win 20+ games. Two of those 4 were Dodgers (Urias & Valenzuela)
- Julio Urias became the 1st Mexican-born pitcher to ever securthe NL ERA title (2.16).

Kenley Jansen and the Dodgers exchange hats with CPBL All-Stars during the club's pre-season trip to Taiwan in 2010.

Taiwan

- Following the 1993 season, the Dodgers were the first Major League Baseball team to play in Taiwan when they competed against the Chinese Professional League (CPBL) All-Stars for three games as part of the Dodgers' Friendship Baseball Series. The Dodgers also took part in a three-game friendship series against CPBL All-Stars a 2010 Spring Training trip to Taiwan.
- Hong-Chih Kuo in 2000 became the first Taiwanese high school player to sign a professional baseball contract when he signed with the Dodgers.

World Baseball Classic

- In 2017, the Dodgers hosted the semi-finals and championship game of the World Baseball Classsic, with the United States claiming their first WBC title in front of a sold-out Dodger Stadium crowd...in 2009, Dodger Stadium also hosted the semi-finals and final (won by Japan).
- Numerous Dodger players have appeared in the tournament, while Tommy Lasorda served as the event's Global Ambassador in both 2006 and 2009.

Miscellaneous

- Dodger Stadium played host to the 1984 exhibition baseball tournament at the Olympic Games in Los Angeles.
- On May 19, 1993, Dodger Stadium hosted the first baseball game to be broadcast in four languages – Chinese, English, Korean and Spanish.

COMMUNITY

What a year 2024 was for the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Community team. In 2024, the Dodgers debuted superstar Shohei Ohtani, and the team went on to win its first World Series since 2020, and for the first time since 1988, they were able to bring a World Series parade back to the streets of Los Angeles. In a year of records being broken on the field, and historic achievements and milestones being met throughout the season, the Dodgers Community team remained committed to engaging diverse communities across our region through thoughtful and meaningful programming and experiences while also expanding opportunities for Dodgers staff, players and coaches to give back.

In addition to supporting MLB Initiatives annually—including Jackie Robinson Day, Childhood Cancer Awareness, Lou Gehrig Day, Play Ball Weekend, Spirit Day and more—Health & wellness, youth education & fitness, access, and service remain foundational pillars allowing the Dodgers Community department the opportunity to provide unique, experiential events, that connect communities (near and far) through intentional planning.

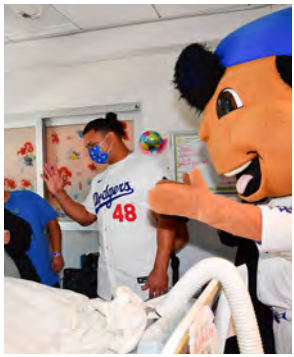
YOUTH EDUCATION & FITNESS

The Dodgers launched another successful season of the LA Reads program, continuing our commitment to inspiring young readers across Los Angeles and helping to end the literacy crisis in the region. The program held several Storytimes, in partnership with local libraries, schools, and nonprofits. This year also marked a special milestone with the first ever dual-immersion Storytime featuring a Japanese/English book read by pitchers Yoshinobu Yamamoto and Evan Phillips. In 2024, the Dodgers Reading Champions challenge inspired young readers to log over 500,000 minutes of reading.

The Dodgers honored No. 42, Jackie Robinson, by highlighting his contributions to the game of baseball and his impact on breaking MLB's color barrier. Partnering with a local USO, the Dodgers Community team visited Alma Fuerte Elementary (built on the site of Jackie's former elementary school) to spread the legacy of Jackie Robinson and assemble care packages for troops to recognize Jackie's military service. It wouldn't be Jackie Robinson Day without paying a visit to Jackie's alma mater, UCLA. At UCLA's baseball field, middle and high school baseball and softball players participated in baseball clinic stations and took in a career panel featuring Dodger Executive Leadership offering insight on careers in professional sports.

With a commitment to promoting healthy choices and an active lifestyle, the Dodgers welcomed 100 underserved youth to a PLAY BALL clinic, led by the team's head athletic trainers. The event focused on educating young athletes about the importance of staying active and the risks of performance-enhancing drugs. Dodger relief pitcher Michael Grove joined the conversation to share his experiences and impart advice on how to make smart choices, both on and off the field.

As a twist to our traditional Back-to-School Backpack Giveaway, the Dodgers in partnership with the Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD), gave 20 senior baseball and softball players an unforgettable day at the stadium. These elite high school athletes received VIP access to the Home Clubhouse, Q&A with coaches, Baseball Operations staff, and current players and received surprise gifts including custom gift bags assembled by current Dodger players and their families.

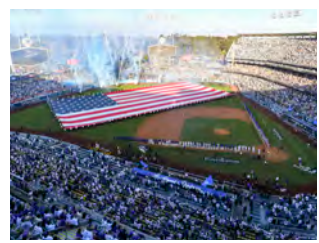


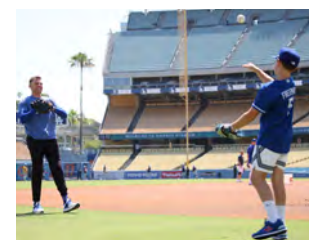
HEALTH & WELLNESS

• The Blue Wishes program is all about turning dreams into reality for those battling serious health challenges. This year, the Dodgers made more than a dozen unforgettable wishes come true. From inviting fans to batting practices and exclusive game-day experiences to incredible meet-and-greets with star players. One especially magical moment came when Dodger superstar Shohei Ohtani surprised a young fan before the game, creating a memory sure to last a lifetime.
• Throughout the season, current and former Dodger players paid visits to UCLA Children's Hospital. With each visit, they brought smiles and spent time connecting with young patients and families, and dedicated hospital staff. The final visit of the year included Mookie Betts serving as their very own Dodgers Santa, delivering gifts and bringing joy to the pediatric floors.
• In honor of MLB's Childhood Cancer Awareness Initiative, 16 patients from UCLA Children's Hospital enjoyed a special day at Dodger Stadium, taking part in an art class where they created drawings of their favorite Dodger players. Later, they returned on Childhood Cancer Awareness Night for a game-day experience like no other. Participants had the opportunity to take the field alongside the players for a special tribute and had their artwork displayed on Dodger Vision as the unique walkup graphics. Their designs were also featured on a custom t-shirt worn by the players during batting practice.
• The Dodgers partnered with Fanatics and Make-A-Wish to grant the wish of becoming a "Dodger for a Day" a reality for eight incredible children. Each child was given the full VIP treatment that included signing a one-day contract administered by Dodgers GM Brandon Gomes, receiving a personalized uniform and even finding their nameplate above a locker in the clubhouse. The magic continued with a private tour of Dodger Stadium, exclusive access to batting practice, and some unforgettable moments being mentored by their favorite players.

ACCESSIBILITY

• Last season, Kids 4 Dodgers Baseball (K4DB) reached a few milestones. Since the program's inception, we have provided more than 160,000 total K4DB tickets and have served more than 1,000 community groups (67 groups in 2024 alone). In addition to providing tickets, food, and t-shirts, the Dodgers ensure that underserved youth and their chaperones can get to the game by providing transportation to and from Dodger Stadium.
• In preparation for the 2024 General Election, the team partnered with several government agencies and HeadCount, a nonprofit and MLB partner, to host seven voter registration drives at the stadium. The Dodgers also collaborated with the County Registrar's office to host a Mobile Voting Center to give fans a place to cast their ballots, drop off mail-in ballots, or register to vote. Almost 7,000 voters were engaged at the ballpark in the lead up to the November General Election.
• The Dodgers continued their longstanding partnership with Metro in 2024. A partnership to support continued efforts to reduce traffic congestion and promote clean air initiatives through transportation alternatives, Dodger Stadium Express transported more than 375,000 fans to the stadium in 2024. During the annual Metro Day at Dodger Stadium, Metro representatives were on-site distributing GoPasses to students and educating fans on the importance of accessibility and the range of public transportation options available throughout our region.
• The Catching Hope Foundation, established by Will & Cara Smith hosted their first clinic at Dodger Stadium this year. Instead of a typical baseball clinic, the Smiths chose to invite all 130 students from Clifford Elementary, the first school the foundation "adopted", to a community clinic. In partnership with Discovery Cube, Scholastic, and Panda Express, the event featured STEM-focused activities, an obstacle course station, and a book fair. The event kept with the foundation's mission of providing students with the resources, experiences, and skills needed for success.





SERVICE

• The Dodgers are dedicated to supporting our nation's Armed Forces through various activities, programs, and days of appreciation throughout the year. These special opportunities include recognizing a Military Hero of the Game at each home game and inviting active duty service members and veterans to participate in the Big Flag Ceremony during select games. In 2024, we also recognized members of the Wounded Warrior Umpire Academy through UMPS Care, organized a chance for the Marine Corps to meet with the Umpiring Crew of that series, and honored the soldiers with an in-game recognition and camera pan.
• The holiday season can be a challenging time for families struggling financially. To help those in need, Dodger players Anthony Banda, Tony Gonsolin, and Landon Knack along with alumni Manny Mota and Billy Ashley in partnership with Jacoby & Meyers, provided 2,000 Turkeys and all the trimmings to LAUSD families facing homelessness and other financial hardships. Players and managing partners at J&M were on-site to help load up the items and interact with families. In addition to the turkey giveaway, the Dodgers donated $35,000 to local community non-profits to increase their reach through their own holiday food drives.
• In 2024, the Dodgers nominated outfielder Mookie Betts for MLB's Roberto Clemente Award, given to a player who best represents the game of Baseball through extraordinary character, community involvement, philanthropy, and positive contributions, both on and off the field. Through his work with his 50/50 Foundation, Mookie and his wife Brianna aim to provide youth with the support needed for success both on and off the field - specifically with access to resources and equipment that promote physical activity, good nutrition, improved mental health, and financial literacy.

WORLD SERIES LEGACY IMPACT

As part of MLB's World Series Legacy Initiative, the Dodgers, in partnership with the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation, and Will and Cara Smith's Catching Hope Foundation, committed to three literacy corner beautifications in various parts of South LA, San Fernando Valley, and Echo Park. The combined renovations amount to an investment of approximately $75,000 across three campuses in the region. The first literacy corner renovation was unveiled during the World Series at Clifford Elementary and included the beautification of a large outdoor reading sanctuary and garden.

LA COMMUNITY TOUR

With so much build up leading into 2024, the Community team knew the annual Community Tour was going to have to lead off the season with a homerun. For more than 15 years, the Dodgers Love LA Community Tour presented by Bank of America, provides the opportunity to engage fans ahead of the start of Spring Training and highlight many of the new and ongoing initiatives that continue to strengthen the Greater LA region and the Los Angeles Dodgers.
Tour Highlights included:

- Employee Day of Service for Dodgers and Bank of America volunteers. In partnership with the LA Regional Food Bank and the Downtown Women's Center, volunteers prepped and assembled meals for families, women, and seniors across Los Angeles County. 144 volunteers packaged food that would go on to feed more than 29K people in the region.
- LA Reads Storytime Reading at Gabriella Charter Elementary School with Dodgers rookie Landon Knack
- Dodgers' rookies Landon Knack and Nick Frasso helped spread joy to more than 500 youth and their family's experiencing homelessness during an epic birthday celebration at Dodger Stadium. In partnership with Worthy of Love, the Tour continued to remind children that everyone is worthy of love.
- Former Dodger Pitcher and Riverside's very own, Joe Kelly joined 2000 high school youth at Corona High School for a pep rally where he had the opportunity to show off some moves in a dance-off that later went viral.
- Former Dodger Joe Kelly, along with pitchers Emmet Sheehan, Gavin Stone, and Michael Grove surprised customers at Jack in the Box locations in Ontario and Northridge.
- Dodger legend and broadcaster Orel Hershiser joined Emmet Sheehan, Gavin Stone, Landon Knack, and Michael Grove for a Senior Prom for 400 senior citizens at the City of Carson Senior Center.
- Dodger superstar Mookie Betts partnered with Bank of America to host a financial literacy workshop at the stadium. Students were given financial literacy handbooks and participated in a workshop led by Bank of America staff.
- Starting pitcher Tony Gonsolin visited the North Central Animal Shelter to raise awareness about the crises at the shelters and the need for more people to look to their local shelters when considering getting a new pet.
- 16 Dodgers including Tyler Glasnow, Brusdar Graterol, James Outman, Miguel Vargas, and Evan Phillips took approximately 50 students from Belmont High School to Universal Studios. Many of these students were unaccompanied minors that had only recently arrived in the country.

2025 Dodger Stadium Media Guidelines

In conjunction with Major League Baseball, the Los Angeles Dodgers will adhere to the following media rules and regulations for all regular season games held at Dodger Stadium.

Access:
• Media gates will open five (5) hours prior to game time for all matchups except for 12:10/1:10 p.m. start times, at which media gates will open four (4) hours prior to game time.
• All media must leave the ballpark no later than 90 minutes following the conclusion of postgame interviews.

Credentials:
• Daily credentials are available on MLB's credential site at credentials.mlb.com. All daily applications will close 24 hours before first pitch. Late applications and day of game changes will not be accepted.
• Full season credentials will be awarded to qualifying media. These will be accepted at all regular season games in addition to all BBWAA cards and MLB-issued credentials.
• Please contact Ally Salvage (AllyS@ladodgers.com) with questions about credentials.

Parking:
• Media parking is available in Lot B off the Left Field Reserve stadium gate.
• Media should enter Dodger Stadium through Gate A, which is located at the intersection of Vin Scully Avenue and Stadium Way, and check in at the gated guard booth in the far righthand lane. Full season credentials and BBWAA credentials will serve as season-long parking passes. Media with daily credentials will be on that select day's media parking list.
• Please note that during sellouts, high profile games such as Opening Day, and during the Postseason, off-site parking lots may be needed. A notice would be sent out ahead of time for this special occasions.

Media Will Call/Entrance:
• Media Will Call is located at a marked ticket window outside the Left Field Reserve Team Store at the top of Lot B parking lot and will open in accordance with times set above. Media Will Call will close at the start of the game.
• After credential pickup, media can enter the stadium to the right through the gate adjacent to Media Will Call on the Reserve Level.
• If a media member is running late and cannot obtain their credential prior to first pitch, please contact Ally Salvage at (626) 825-2270 to coordinate credential pickup.

Media Availabilities & Player/Manager/Staff Interviews:
• Pre-game and post-game interviews may occur inside of the interview room.
• Interviews may also be conducted on the field during designated periods of field access (pre- and post-game).

Writing Press Guidelines:
• Writing press will be assigned a seat location in the Vin Scully Press Box. During high profile games such as Opening Day and Postseason, media may be assigned to sit in the Auxiliary Box or inside of the Press Box dining room.
• Please check the seating charts in the Press Box for daily seating assignments. If your outlet does not appear on the seating chart, media can sit in the dining room.

Photography Guidelines:
• Photographers will be permitted on-site five (5) hours prior to first pitch and must leave the ballpark no later than 90 minutes after the conclusion of postgame interviews.
• Photo Positions:
All dugout well photo positions are pre-marked and assigned ahead of time.
If you wish to switch between first base and third base photo wells, please wait for the middle of an inning and walk on the dirt warning track behind home plate. Proceed with caution.
• Photo Well Reminders:
No transmitting is allowed in dugout wells, unless in a netted basket. This must be done from a location inside the building.

• Please be mindful of players while in the dugout wells and allow them to enter/exit the dugout prior to entering/exiting the well.
• Ethernet cables may be used in the standing photo positions to directly transmit from the camera. No laptops may be used in the standing photo positions. Only netted well spots may transmit via laptop.
No bags or cases are allowed in the wells, unless in a netted basket. Any prohibited items will be removed by security.
Texting is the only form of telephone communication allowed in the wells; pictures, videos, and phone calls are not permitted.

• Remote Cameras:
Remote cameras must be approved by Jon SooHoo or Juan Ocampo once in place.
If any issues arise, please contact Jon SooHoo at (626) 676-0762.

Television Live Shots:
• TV crews may shoot stand-up segments from the warning track on the field along the first and third base sides.
• Live shots must conclude by the start of pregame ceremonies. In-game or post-game live shots can be done from Lot B.
• TV crews can remain on site for the duration of the game but must sit in the Press Box Conference Room during the game.

Media Materials:
• All media information, including the 2025 Media Guide, will be available online at mlbpressbox.com/lad and will also be emailed out to credential holders ahead of each game.
• Login information for the online Press Box is as follows:
Username: media@ladodgers.com
Password: dodgers

WiFi information is as follows:
Username: MLB-Press
Password: Hom3Run!
Lineups will be printed and distributed in the back of the Press Box. No other printed information media materials will be available.

Media Dress Code:
• Major League Baseball requests media members covering games to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects their respect for their colleagues, the teams, and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and MLB expects members of the media to adhere to a business casual dress code. Wearing team branded clothing is not permitted. A full description of MLB's media dress code can be found at www.mlbpressbox.com.

*To reach media locations after entering stadium from Lot B Reserve Level:
• Press Box: Make a right down the concourse after entering the stadium and take the home plate elevators to Level 5. The Press Box entrance is directly across from the elevators.

• Interview Room: Use the home plate elevators and proceed to Level 1. Exit the elevators and make a left down the hallway. Security will scan your credential and lead you to the interview room, which is just past the metal double doors.

• Clubhouses: Use the home plate elevators and proceed to Level 1. Exit the elevators and make a left down the hallway to visit the Dodgers clubhouse and make a right down the hallway to visit the Visitors' clubhouse. Security will scan your credential.

• Photo Wells + Photographer Work Space: Photographers who are assigned to shoot in the photo wells can utilize the Visiting Clubhouse digital hallway. To locate the hallway, take the home plate elevators down to Level 1 and make a right hand turn, past the glass team store.
• Security will scan your credential.
• The workspace will be equipped with tabletops, stools, and power strips.
• Cases, roller bags, and other non-essential equipment should be placed under the table when not in use.

• Field Level: Take the home plate elevators down to Level 1. Exit the elevators and make a left, walk down the hallway and down the stairs. Continue on the pathway until reaching a second set of stairs on your right, which will lead you up to the field level. Security will scan credentials.

Joe Davis
Broadcaster

Joe Davis enters his 10th season as a member of the Dodger broadcast team on SportsNet LA and ninth as the lead play-by-play voice for the club. In 2022, Davis, 35, was named the lead voice for Major League Baseball on Fox, replacing Joe Buck, and one of the network's lead NFL announcers. He has been calling play-by-play on Fox Sports' national coverage of pro and college football, Major League Baseball and college basketball since 2014.

Davis attended Beloit College (Wis.), where he was a four-year letter winner and two-time captain of the school's football team, as well as earning a bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in journalism. During the football off seasons, Davis assumed play-by-play duties for the school's athletic department, announcing baseball and men's and women's basketball games on local radio and television and served as the voice of Buccaneer spring sports for his final three years on campus before graduating in 2010.

Prior to his senior year of college, Davis secured a summer job with the Schaumburg Flyers baseball team of the independent Northern League, serving as the team's play-by-play voice and media relations director. He then moved on to the Montgomery (Ala.) Biscuits, the Double-A affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays, and was named Southern League Broadcaster of the Year in 2012. While in Montgomery, Davis also worked for the Baylor Independent Sports Properties Network and Comcast Sports Southeast, where he called play-by-play for college football, basketball and baseball.

In July 2012, Davis made the jump to national television at the age of 24, joining ESPN as an announcer for college baseball, basketball, football, hockey and softball and also appeared in spot duty for Major League Baseball on ESPN radio.

Davis resides in Pasadena with his wife Libby, daughter Charlotte and sons Blake and Theo.

Nomar Garciaparra
Broadcaster

Nomar Garciaparra is in his 12th season behind the microphone for the Dodgers, serving as an analyst for SportsNet LA's game broadcast and pre-and-post game telecasts.

A native of Whittier, CA, and a graduate of Bellflower's St. John Bosco High School, Garciaparra played 14 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Red Sox, Cubs, Dodgers and A's, posting a .313 batting average with 229 home runs and 936 RBI. He was the AL Rookie of the Year in 1997, American League batting champion in 1999 and 2000, National League Comeback Player of the Year with the Dodgers in 2006, a six-time MLB All-Star, and won a Silver Slugger Award in 1997.

Garciaparra attended Georgia Tech and was a first-round pick of the Red Sox in 1994. He made his MLB debut in 1996 and as a rookie with the Red Sox in 1997, Garciaparra hit 30 home runs and had 98 RBI, setting a MLB record for RBI by a leadoff hitter and most homers by a rookie shortstop.

Garciaparra played three seasons with the Dodgers in 2006-08, earning an All-Star selection at first base and helping the team reach the postseason in 2006. After playing with Oakland in 2009, Garciaparra signed a one-day contract with Boston in 2010 to retire as a member of the Red Sox. In 2014, Garciaparra was inducted into both the Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame and the Latino Baseball Hall of Fame in the Dominican Republic.

Following the end of his playing career, Garciaparra worked at ESPN, appearing on Baseball Tonight, MLB game telecasts as well as the network's coverage of the College World Series and the Little League World Series from 2011-13.

Garciaparra was a member of the 1992 U.S. Olympic baseball team and his wife, Olympian and World Cup soccer champion Mia Hamm, played on the 1996, 2000 and 2004 women's Olympic soccer teams. The couple married in 2003, and have twin girls, Grace and Ava, and a son, Garrett. Both Garciaparra and Hamm are among the investors in Major League Soccer's Los Angeles Football Club (LAFC).

Orel Hershiser
Broadcaster

Dodger great and Emmy Award-winning broadcaster Orel Hershiser enters his 12th season as a color commentator and analyst for the Dodgers on SportsNet LA. He was inducted in the Dodgers' Ring of Honor in 2023, becoming a Legend of Dodger Baseball.

Hershiser is a multi-time Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association award winner for his work as an analyst on both the game broadcast and the Dodgers' pre- and postgame telecasts. He previously was behind the microphone at ESPN from 2006-13 as a color analyst for their Baseball Tonight, Sunday Night Baseball, College World Series and Little League World Series programming.

The three-time All-Star right-hander played 18 seasons in the Majors, including 13 with the Dodgers, who he helped lead to a 1988 World Championship. That year, Hershiser led the National League in wins (23), innings pitched (267), shutouts (8) and complete games (15) en route to a Cy Young Award, and set the all-time Major League record of 59 consecutive scoreless innings (Aug. 30-Sept. 28). He established his place in Dodger lore with a dominant 1988 Postseason, when he earned both NLCS and World Series MVP honors, and became the only player in history to win those honors in addition to the Cy Young Award in the same season. He later received both The Sporting News Pitcher of the Year and Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year awards for his brilliant season.

Hershiser attended and played baseball at Bowling Green (OH) State University and was drafted in the 17th round by the Dodgers in the 1979 Major League First-Year Player Draft. It was during a game in his rookie year of 1984, that Hershiser was nicknamed "Bulldog," in an effort by Dodgers Hall of Fame manager Tommy Lasorda to get Hershiser to adopt a tougher attitude on the mound.

After finishing his playing career with the Dodgers in 2000 and briefly working for the team, he joined the Rangers as a special assistant to General Manager John Hart in the fall of 2001. He was named the Rangers' pitching coach in 2002 and after the 2005 season, he became Executive Director of the Rangers.

He has co-authored or authored two books: Out of the Blue and Between the Lines: Nine Things Baseball Taught Me About Life. Hershiser has two sons, Quinton and Jordan, and two stepchildren, Spencer and Sloane. He and his wife Dana reside in Las Vegas.

Eric Karros
Broadcaster

Eric Karros enters his fourth season as part of the Dodger broadcast team. Karros will work as an analyst for game broadcasts as well as pre- and postgame shows. The 2024 season marks Karros' 21st consecutive year calling games. He began broadcasting in 2004 with the Dodgers' NL West division-clinching game against the Giants for FOX. He spent two years at ESPN calling MLB, the Little League World Series and College World Series games. In 2007, he returned to Fox. He now enters his 17th year at Fox, where he has worked World Series, League Championship Series, All-Star Games, and regular season games for national broadcast.

Karros was selected by the Dodgers in the sixth round of the 1988 First-Year Player Draft out of UCLA. He won the 1992 NL Rookie of the Year and was the Opening Day first baseman for the club nine of the next 10 years. Karros spent parts of 12 seasons with the Dodgers, winning the Silver Slugger Award in 1995 and finishing his career in L.A. as the all-time L.A. Dodgers home run leader with 270. He is one of three Dodgers in franchise history to have five 30 home run/100 RBI seasons, the other two being Hall of Famers Duke Snider and Gil Hodges. He remains the only Dodger in franchise history to hit two homers in one inning (Aug. 22, 2000, sixth inning vs. Montreal). Karros played 14 Major League seasons, including 2003 with the Chicago Cubs and 2004 with the Oakland A's. Karros earned a degree in economics from UCLA.

Jessica Mendoza
Broadcaster

Jessica Mendoza is in her fourth season with the Dodger broadcast team. A groundbreaker in baseball broadcasting, in 2015 with ESPN Mendoza became the first woman to serve as an analyst for nationally-televised MLB games. Also in 2015, Mendoza became the first female analyst for a nationally televised MLB Postseason game, calling the American League Wild Card Game on ESPN. That year, she also became the first female analyst for a Men's College World Series telecast.

From 2016-2020, Mendoza was a color analyst on the ESPN Sunday Night Baseball team. In 2020, she became the first woman to serve as a solo analyst for a national package of MLB game telecasts including weeknight games and holiday baseball. On Sept. 29, 2021, Mendoza along with Melanie Newman, became the first all-female team to broadcast a game for ESPN when they called the Dodgers vs. Padres game at Dodger Stadium. Mendoza has also provided analysis on ESPN and ABC Little League World Series coverage since 2016.

Mendoza is a two-time Olympic medalist in softball, having won gold in Athens (2004) and silver in Beijing (2008) for Team USA. In 2006, she was named the USA Softball Athlete of the Year and was also recognized in 2008 as the Women's Sports Foundation Sportswoman of the Year. In 2019, Mendoza was inducted into the National Softball Hall of Fame. Mendoza was a four-time First-Team All-American while playing outfield at Stanford University. She was a three-time Stanford Female Athlete of the Year and a First-Team Academic All-American in 2002. Mendoza earned a bachelor's degree in American Studies in 2002 and a master's in social sciences in education in 2003.

Stephen Nelson
Broadcaster

Stephen Nelson is in his third season as part of the Dodger broadcast team and is slated to call more than 70 home and road games for SportsNet LA this season.

Nelson, 35, is a Southern California native and graduated from Chapman University. He attended Marina High School in Huntington Beach and has worked professionally for MLB Network, NHL Network, NBC Sports, YouTube and Apple-TV+ calling Major League Baseball and National Hockey League games. In 2021, MLB Network tapped him to host its most popular show, "Intentional Talk," alongside Kevin Millar. In addition to "IT," Nelson has also hosted programs for the MLB and NHL networks, including MLB Tonight, MLB Now, Hot Stove, and NHL Tonight. Prior to joining MLB Network, he was a host and broadcaster for Bleacher Report. He also called games for the 2023 World Baseball Classic in Japan.

Nelson is a proud Japanese American and is the only Asian American play-by-play announcer working for a Major League Baseball team. He lives in Los Angeles with his wife, Cori, who is a news anchor for NBC News and MSNBC, their sons Kai and Crews, and dog, Nash.

Kirsten Watson

Broadcaster

Kirsten Watson begins her fifth season with the Dodger broadcast team as a reporter and host, where she contributes to SportsNet LA's game broadcasts and studio programming as well as pre- and postgame coverage on both television and radio. During the Dodgers' offseason, Watson is the gameday reporter and host for the Los Angeles Rams.

Watson previously spent two years as a reporter and host with Spectrum SportsNet, appearing on pre-, post- and in-game broadcasts of the Los Angeles Lakers, Los Angeles Sparks and South Bay Lakers while also co-hosting the network's Lakeshow studio program. She also served as a producer for the National Football League, creating localized content for international markets, hosting its Game Recognize Game series, and organizing international trips for NFL players for content and media opportunities to help grow the game globally. Watson continues to host Monday Night Football on Channel 5 in the UK, an international broadcast in partnership with NFL Network.

Watson is a graduate of Columbia University and was a member of the school's volleyball team. Following the completion of her master's degree in broadcast from Columbia Journalism School, Watson was awarded the Stuart Scott Internship-Scholarship from the National Association of Black Journalists and ESPN, where she produced video packages for SportsCenter and NFL Live.

Rick Monday
Broadcaster

Former Dodger outfielder and two-time Major League All-Star Rick Monday is in his 33rd season as a Dodger broadcaster and 41st season overall with the organization, including eight as a player.

Monday, who joined the Dodgers' broadcast team in 1993, began his broadcasting career as a sports anchor on KTTV in Los Angeles in 1985, while also calling play-by-play and hosting the pregame show for Dodger games on DodgerVision and Z Channel. He was nominated for an Emmy as host of the Dodgers' pregame show on KTTV's "Dodger Central" in 1988 and he earned an Emmy for Live Sports Coverage in 2001. Monday has also called games for the College World Series and spent four seasons with the Padres.

A star at Arizona State University, Monday led the Sun Devils to the 1965 College World Series Championship and earned All-American and College Player of the Year honors before the Kansas City Athletics made him the first player ever selected in the Major League First-Year Player Draft in 1965. He was inducted into the ASU Hall of Fame in 1975 and the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2016.

Monday, who spent six years in the Marine Corps Reserves while playing in the big leagues, made his Major League debut in 1966 and, after spending six seasons with the Athletics and five seasons with the Cubs, came to the Dodgers as part of a five-player trade in 1977. He played eight seasons in LA, and propelled the Dodgers to the 1981 World Series with a dramatic, game-winning home run in the winner-take-all Game 5 of the NLCS at Montreal. Overall, Monday compiled a .264 career batting average with 241 home runs and 775 RBI in 19 big-league seasons, while helping the Dodgers win a World Championship in 1981 and three NL pennants (1977, 1978, 1981).

On April 25, 1976 at Dodger Stadium, two protesters attempted to set fire to an American flag in the outfield and Monday, playing for the Chicago Cubs, ran over and grabbed the flag out of their hands and returned it to the Dodger dugout as the crowd erupted in cheers. The scoreboard behind the left-field bleachers in the stadium later flashed the message, "Rick Monday... You Made A Great Play...". He would later receive the Presidential Commendation for "Service To Others" from Gerald Ford.

Monday and his wife, Barbaralee, who make regular visits to various veteran's hospitals throughout the year, reside in Vero Beach during the offseason.

Tim Neverett
Broadcaster

Tim Neverett is in his seventh season as a member of the Dodgers' broadcast team and will handle the play-by-play on select games on AM 570 while also occasionally anchoring the pre-game and post-game shows on SportsNet LA.

He is the author of the book Covid Curveball on the Dodgers 2020 World Series championship season. During the offseason, Neverett calls college basketball nationally on FS1 and college hockey on the New England Sports Network. He also serves as a professor in communication studies at Emerson College.

Neverett previously served as the radio play-by-play voice of the Boston Red Sox for three seasons (2016-18) following a seven-year stint as the radio and television play-by-play announcer for the Pittsburgh Pirates. Before joining the Pirates, Neverett worked for FSN Rocky Mountain, including as a studio host for Colorado Rockies games during the 2008 season. He also served the network as a play-by-play announcer for Rockies games, college football, basketball, hockey, lacrosse, arena football, and track and field. In addition, Neverett hosted talk shows for both the nationally syndicated Sporting News Radio Network and ESPN 560 in Denver where he was named the 2005 Best Radio Sports-Talk Host by Westword magazine. Neverett also worked in Las Vegas calling games on radio and TV for the Padres' and Dodgers' Triple-A teams, as well as Las Vegas' International Hockey League team and the UNLV baseball and football teams. Neverett, who began his broadcasting career in 1985 with Pittsburgh's Double-A affiliate Nashua, also called baseball, softball, basketball, and soccer as well as hockey and skiing during four Olympic Games from 2002-2008.

Neverett played college baseball at Emerson College in Boston, and he and his wife Jessica have three sons: Matthew, Kyle and Drew.

Charley Steiner
Broadcaster

Five-time Emmy Award-winner and National Radio Hall of Famer Charley Steiner enters his 21st season with the Dodgers, handling play-by-play duties for the club's radio broadcast on AM 570.

Before joining the Dodgers, Steiner broadcast three years for the New York Yankees on WCBS Radio and the YES Network. Prior to his seasons with the Yankees, Steiner spent 14 years at ESPN, where his responsibilities ranged from anchoring SportsCenter to working play-by-play for Major League Baseball and Saturday Primetime Football. He served as SportsCenter's primary boxing reporter/analyst and also contributed to the Emmy and CableACE Award-winning Outside the Lines series. Steiner also called the 2006, 2009 and 2013 World Baseball Classics for XM Radio and MLB International, respectively, and broadcast MLB games live from seven different countries.

Steiner graduated from Bradley University, where its School of Sports Communication was named in his honor in 2015. Steiner, who was inducted into the Bradley's Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, also established the Charles H. Steiner Endowed Scholarship, which is given annually to Bradley broadcasting majors. In March 2022, Steiner was inducted into the Missouri Valley Conference Hall of Fame.

Steiner began his professional broadcasting career in 1969 at WIRL Radio in Peoria, Illinois as a newscaster, and made career stops in Davenport, New Haven, Hartford and Cleveland before returning to his native New York, where he was the morning sportscaster on WOR radio, while serving as sports director for the RKO Radio Network. In addition, Steiner called the play-by-play for the USFL New Jersey Generals and, later, for the New York Jets on WABC radio.

Luis Cruz
Broadcaster

Luis Cruz enters his first season as an analyst for the team's Spanish-language radio broadcasts alongside Pepe Yñiguez and José Mota. Cruz recently retired from an astounding 24-season professional career, including two seasons with the Dodgers.

Cruz, 41, brings a wealth of baseball experience to the Spanish team. Originally from Navojoa, Mexico, Cruz signed as an amateur free agent with the Boston Red Sox in 2000 and made his pro debut at age 17 the following year, Cruz concluded his playing career in the Mexican Pacific Winter League for the Mayos de Navojoa, for whom he batted .250 in 174 plate appearances in 52 games while playing at least one game at each of the nine positions.

Cruz played five seasons in the Major Leagues (2008-10, 2012-13), slashing .234/.272/.316 in 652 plate appearances with the Pittsburgh Pirates (2009-09), Milwaukee Brewers (2010), Los Angeles Dodgers (2012-13) and New York Yankees (2013). With the Dodgers in 2012, the righty produced a .297/.322/.431 stat line in 296 plate appearances with six home runs and 40 RBI. He also served as the starting third baseman for Mexico in the 2013 World Baseball Classic, across the diamond from Dodger teammate and current SNLA analyst Adrián González.

José Mota
Broadcaster

José Mota, the son of Dodger legend Manny Mota, is in his fourth season with the Dodger broadcast team and will primarily call games on the Dodgers' Spanish language simulcast alongside Pepe Yñiguez and Luis Cruz.

A two-time Emmy Award winner, Mota spent 20 seasons with the Angels' TV and radio broadcast teams serving in multiple English and Spanish roles. In 2021, he became the first Latin-born former player to be a full-time English TV broadcaster for a Major League team. On Aug. 19-20, 2017, Mota became the first MLB broadcaster to have called play-by-play on a team's English radio/TV broadcasts and Spanish radio/TV broadcasts, as well as working as a color analyst on both platforms. Mota was Vladimir Guerrero's translator for the 2018 Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony in Cooperstown, becoming the first translator in the HOF ceremony's history.

Mota's first-ever MLB broadcast assignment was for Los Angeles Dodgers Spanish radio in 2001. In the years since, he has been a broadcaster/analyst for Fox (where he broadcasted MLB and NFL games), MLB Network, ESPN, TBS, Bally Sports, MLB Radio, DirecTV Latin America and Yahoo Sports. Mota was a sideline reporter/analyst for ESPN during the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006 and has worked on broadcasting teams for every WBC (2009, 2013, 2017, and 2023).

A former Major League second baseman with the San Diego Padres (1991) and Kansas City Royals (1995), Mota also played in the Dodger organization in 1987-88. Mota was a two-time Collegiate All-American second baseman at Cal State Fullerton, 1984 National Champion and earned a bachelor's degree in communications from CSUF. Mota made his film debut in Kevin Costner's "For Love of the Game."

The Mota family founded the non-profit Mota's Faces in 2011, which promotes the involvement of American youth in assisting impoverished school children and their families in his native Dominican Republic and Colombia and Venezuela. Mota and his family make their home in the San Gabriel Valley.

Pepe Yñiguez
Broadcaster

Pepe Yñiguez enters his 28th season as a Dodger broadcaster after joining the club in 1997 and Jose Mota and Luis Cruz on the club's Spanish-language radio broadcast sits alongside.

Yñiguez previously hosted the Dodgers' pregame and postgame shows, "Hablando con los Dodgers," in 1993 and covered select Spanish-language broadcasting assignments for the club in 1997 before joining the team full-time in 1999.

Starting in 1992, Yñiguez broadcasted numerous events for Fox Sports International, including every World Series from 1997-2005. In 1997, he called the All-Star Game at Jacobs Field in Cleveland alongside Tito Fuentes and Dennis Martinez. He has also broadcasted the annual Caribbean Series. From 1993-95, Yñiguez served as the color commentator for Los Angeles Raiders broadcasts. During past offseasons, he also hosted "Central Deportiva," a weekly sports talk show airing Sunday afternoons, on KWKW in Los Angeles.

Yñiguez resides with his wife Rafaela in La Habra, and has four children, Edgar, Alenrry, Karissa and Jaquely.
